Elroy Face Saves Day Again For Pittsburgh

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Pittsburgh Pirates moved to within one victory of their first world championship since 1925 today when Gil McDougald's second-inning error paved the way for two unearned runs and a 5-2 triumph over the New York Yankees in the fifth game of the World Series.

Harvey Haddix received credit for the victory but Elroy Face, brilliant relief hero of the Pirates, came out of the bullpen in the seventh inning to choke off a Yankee rally and then shut out New York in the eighth and ninth. Face has "saved" all three Pirate victories in the series.

McDougald's error was the key play of the second inning in which the Pirates routed Art Ditmar for the second time in the series and took a 3-0 lead.

STARTS INNING

Dick Stuart started the inning with a single to left field and was forced by Gino Cimoli. Smoky Burgess then rammed a double into the right field corner, sending Cimoli to third. Shortstop Tony Kubek fielded Don Hoak's routine grounder but McDougald missed his throw attempting to retire Burgess at third. Cimilo scoring, Burgess reaching third safely and Hoak going all the way to second base.

Dick Groat's double and Roberto Clnemente's single added the Pirates' fourth run off Luis Arroyo in the third inning before Bill Stafford, 22-year-old rookie Manager Casey Stengle considered starting in the vital game, came into shut out Pittsburgh from that point through the seventh.

FINAL RUN

The Pirates scored a final run in the ninth when Burgess singled, went to second when Bob Cerv fumbled the ball, moved to third on Ryne Duren's wild pitch and scored on Hoak's single up the middle.

Elston Howard doubled and came around on two infield outs for the Yankees' first run in the second inning and Roger Maris homered into the upper right field stands in the third for their second run.

Haddix was removed when Tony Kubek and pinch-hitter Hector Lopez singled with one out in the seventh and the crowd of 62,753 cheered as Face got McDougald to hit into Guinea Leader Backs Soviet Attack On U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UP) — President Sekou Toure of Guinea today supported Soviet attacks on the U.N. peace-making machinery and demanded revision of the world organization's secretariat to permit equitable representation for Asia and Africa.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev and a full-strength Soviet delegation was on hand and enthusiastically applauded the appearance of the white-robed African leader on the U.N. General Assembly rostrum.

Khrushchev wants a three-member presidium — Communist, Western and neutral — each with veto powers over U.N. peace-making decisions.

Toure went down the line in support of most of the Soviet projects. On the matter of the secretarit revision, however, Toure suggested appointment of three assistant deputies representing the main blocs to assist the secretary-general.

Fisherman Swept To Death In Sea

Graham Furness, 39-year-old Sausalito and Monterey fisherman, apparently drowned Saturday when the mast snapped down on him and a huge wave swept him into the ocean from his boat, the Irish Rose.

He was the only fatality in a near-record number of weekend distress calls for the Coast Guard in the Bay Area. Blustery winds and rough seas capsized several small boats and disabled others.

The Coast Guard continued to search today for Furness in the area about 15 miles southwest of the Farallones.

Furness was a veteran seafarer, credited with several rescues at sea. But he could not swim.

Sausalito scultpor Gerry Walter was steering the boat while Furness secured gear topside. The swell which washed Furness overboard also cleared the decks and damaged radio equipment, so Walter could not contact the Coast Guard.

First word of the tragedy came when Walter brought the boat into the Sausalito Shipbuilding Co. after circling and searching for Furness. The 40-foot boat is a converted landing craft.

Furness is survived by his wife, Ellie, in Big Sur, and three children.

The 30-foot sloop Harpoon capsized beneath the Golden Gate Brdige Saturday, dumping four San Francisco passengers into the water. The Coast

STORK CHOOSES LANDING PLACE ON FRONT LAWN

Mrs. Nancy L. McElhattan, like most expectant mothers, was all packed and ready to head for the hospital yesterday afternoon when she had the sensations that told her it was time to leave.

As she left the house, however, it became apparent that the baby was arriving a bit faster than expected.

Fortunately, Alma Hanson, a nursing instructor at St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco, was visiting neighbors and took the situation in hand on the McElhattans' front lawn at 398 Pinewood Drive, Marinwood.

When an ambulance arrived, the crew found one more passenger than they had expected waiting.

Mrs. McElhattan and her 6-pound, 14¾-ounce daughter were both doing well in Marin General Hospital today.

Tam District Votes On $3 Million Bonds Tomorrow

Voters in the Tamalpais Union High School District go to the polls tomorrow to decide on a three-million-dollar program to expand Drake, Redwood and Tamalpais High Schools and purchase another high school site.

Polls in the district's 40 precincts will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Most of them are located in schools and other public buildings.

The three-million-dollar bond issue is expected to provide classrooms and other facilities to provide for an anticipated 5,600-plus enrollment by 1963-64. The present enrollment in the three schools is 4,110. The combined capacity is 4,148.

At Tamalpais High the bond money would provide a new science building to replace inadequate and obsolete facilities; remodeling of the present science rooms into ordinary academic classrooms; conversion of old office space to additional classroom space; new eating facilities and improved outdoor physical education facilities.

At Redwood High the bond issue would provide two new classroom wings, eating facilities, site development and parking area construction, and increase in library facilities.

Funds for Drake High would provide expanded locker facilities, expanded industrial arts facilities, including an electric shop, a combination teachers' workroom-lunchroom.

The bond issue also provides funds for purchase of another high school site, possibly to serve the Alto and Tiburon Peninsula, or the Woodacre-Geronimo Valley area. No recommendation on a site has been made, however.

School Tax Boost Vote Tomorrow

Larkspur School District residents will vote tomorrow on a proposal to increase the district's basic tax rate from $1.35 to $2.10 per $100 assessed valuation.

Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel said the 75 cent increase was a "ceiling" figure that would take care of the district's needs for the next few years but that the maximum figure would not be set as the tax rate in the immediate future.

A simple majority is needed to pass the tax boost.

Seidel said the increase would cover the expense of educating twice as many children as were enrolled in the district in 1952 when the tax rate was raised to $1.35.

In 1952 Seidel explained there were 800 children enrolled in the district's two schools. Today there are 1670 students in average daily attendance at the district's three schools. By the school year of 1961-62 when the new tax rate would take effect, the Board of Education expects to have about 1800 students in attendance, Seidel noted.

Inmate Dies In Stabbing At Quentin

A 31-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate scheduled to be paroled next August, was stabbed to death in the prison gymnasium today. His attacker is still unknown, Associate Warden Dale B. Frady, reported.

Edward Ybarra of Los Angeles died in the prison hospital, soon after he was stabbed five times. A wound on the left side of his back was probably the fatal one, Frady said.

Ybarra had been at San Quentin since October, 1957, serving a term for selling narcotics in Los Angeles County. He previously had been at the prison from 1954 to December 1956 on a robbery charge.

He was to have been released on parole next Aug. 21.

Many inmates were in the area when Ybarra was killed, but no prison employee was present. One of the inmates notified a coach that someone had been stabbed.

No weapon has been found yet, Frady said.

Trampoline Craze Runs Out Of Bounce; 2 Centers Close

The bounce has died out of the trampoline craze in Marin.

Two of the county's three trampoline centers have closed their doors, to open no more.

Signs were posted on windows of the San Rafael Trampoline Center at 836 Fourth Street late last week announcing: "Closed. Trampolines for Sale, $250 Each."

Also closed "for keeps" is Jumpoline at the Nave Shopping Center in Novato. Owner Nicholas Nacca of San Anselmo today said he folded center because it "just didn't pan out—not enough business."

The San Rafael center had 27 mats rebounding to the jumps of youngsters during the summer. The Novato center had 14.

Nacca said the loss in Novato was "quite a bit."

Still operating is the Bon Air Trampoline Center in Greenbrae.

Trampolines at Marin Town and Country Club have been closed for the season, but owner Max Firedman said it is planned to open them again next spring.

"Our situation is a little different from the others," he said. "The trampolines are just like extra diving boards at the pool—something extra for our members. We don't depend on them for a living."

NEW YORK (UPI) — The "Open End" television program lost its sponsor today because of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's appearance on the show last night.

Nikita Rehashes Points Made In U.N. During TV Interview

Russ Premier Will Leave U.S. Thursday

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations awaited Premier Nikita Khrushchev's next appearance before the General Assembly, probably tonight, after hearing him say once more, "We shall never start a war."

Khrushchev made the statement last night on a television and radio interview, "Open End," in New York.

LEAVES THURSDAY

The Soviet premier said he is going home Thursday. In the next four days he is expected to take every opportunity to further publicize the many proposals he has advanced, formally and informally, since he came to the Assembly, three weeks ago.

They include reorganizing the U.N., replacing Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, admitting Red China, another summit conference, a plan for disarmament, and a special session of the Assembly—meeting somewhere in Europe, not in New York—to discuss disarmament.

LEADERS LEAVING

Most of the international high brass will have gone from New York before the end of the week.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India left last night for London. He said he was "a little disappointed" in the present session of the Assembly, adding, "but by and large I'm glad I came."

Khrushchev's televised interview lasted more than two hours, but it was largely a warm-over of the things he has been saying in and out of the Assembly.

These were some of his main points:

1. "We shall never start a war. We do not need a war. Categorically, we shall never start a war. So you can sleep in peace."

2. The Soviet Union "already has proposed" an agreement to embargo arms shipments to other countries. "We are ready to sign an agreement with you right now."

3. The U-2 flights proved that President Eisenhower was not sincere in saying he wanted peace.

4. Just before he left Moscow for the U.N., he received "definite information" that the United States was about to send another U-2 over Soviet territory. He said he warned Llewellyn Thompson, American ambassador to the Soviet Union, that the plane would be shot down. Thereafter, he concluded, American authorities canceled the flight.

NO U.N. PROBE

5. He won't agree to a U.N. investigation of the American RB-47 plane shot down by the Soviets because that is a domestic matter.

6. The U.N. will die unless it accedes to his demand for reorganization of the secretariat. He wants three secretaries-general instead of just one.

7. He won't agree to a worldwide plebiscite giving all peoples the right to vote on whether they want self-government.

8. "With regard to Berlin—and the German problem—what is it we want exactly? We want to have a peace treaty signed—with the two existing German states."

Florida Governor Takes New Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida today accepted a three year term as president of the National Assn. of Broadcasters.

The association's 43-man board approved the selection of Collins to succeed Harold E. Fellows, who died March 8.

Collins will take over his new duties in early January when his term as governor expires.

Trees growing in the open, singly or in small groups, are more in danger of being struck by lightning than those in a dense forest.

Strikers Let Non-Strikers In G.E. Plant

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The striking International Union of Electrical Workers permitted non-strikers to enter the General Electric Co. plant here today for the first time since the union posted pickets last Thursday.

John Shambo, president of Local 301, said the local's executive board had decided yesterday it would be unfair to continue barring salaried workers because salaried workers were entering struck G. E. plants elsewhere.

Shambo also said the local had proved that it could close the plant, which is G.E. headquarters. Last week, city officials declared a state of emergency after violence.

The union estimated at least 3,500 pickets were on duty today but said they had been instructed not to bar entry.

More violence had been feared here and in Syracuse, N.Y., but none was reported in either city this morning as the union's nationwide strike against the company entered its second week.

The number of employees who reported for work in each city was not determined immediately.

Company security guards summoned tow trucks and had the cars hauled to the plant parking lots.

Some brick streets in Charleston, W. Va., paved in 1872, are still being used today.

Zimmerman, who was appointed to the post Jan. 29, 1959, told the President personal reasons made it necessary for him to quit.

The President appointed Norman P. Mason, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, to fill the FHA vacancy on an acting basis.

CHICAGO (UPI)—Fritz Reiner, conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, was hospitalized today with a "congestive condition" which will require him to take a complete rest for an "indefinite period." Reiner, 71, was given a temporary leave of absence from his conducting duties. He will remain in charge of music director.

More Funds For GOP

WASHINGTON—Three leading Republican fund-raising committees collected over one million dollars more than similar Democratic groups did during the first eight months of 1960.

A study of financial reports field by the fund-raising committees of each party showed the three Republican groups received $2,794,891.70 up to Aug. 31 compared with $1,637,430.80 by the Democrats.

Included in the comparison were contributions to the national, senatorial and congressional finance committees of both the Republican and Democratic Parties.

More Women In Banks

PASADENA (UPI) — Women bank employees are crowding out men.

There are 360,000 women currently employed in the nation's banks against 180,000 men, according to the National Assn. of Bank Women, which opened its 38th annual convention today.

Zanzibar Ruler Dies

ZANZIBAR (UPI)—The sultan of Zanzibar, Seyyid Sir Khalifa Bin Harub, 81, died yesterday after a reign of 49 years.

The sultan, who ruled over 12,000 subjects in the islands of Zanzibar and Pemba, and a 50-mile strip on the Kenya coast in East Africa, was known for his love of modern developments. He was buried almost immediately after his death. Ten minutes later his 50-year-old son assumed power.

Russ Farm Output Down

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today reported falling production on many of the Soviet Union's collective and state farms. It accused officials of being indifferent to serious shortcomings.

Trouble For Dinah

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dinah Shore's zipper popped wide open yesterday in the middle of a strenuous folk dance during her live TV show.

Typhoon's Toll

HONG KONG (AP)—Typhoon Kit roared slowly across the Red Chinese island of Hainan today, leaving more than 100 persons dead and another 100 missing in the central Philippines.

N.Y. Library Bombed

NEW YORK (AP)—The "Sunday bomber" struck again at another of the city's famed public places yesterday—this time the New York Public Library.

The blast, heard over a wide area, shattered numerous windows, showered dirt and debris on parked cars, uprooted shrubbery and dug a foot-deep hole in the earth. No one was injured.

Congo Envoy Drowns

Riots In Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (UPI)—A weekend of riots in Southern Rhodesia left seven persons killed, at least 82 injured and more than 100 arrested. All but three of the casualties were reported in the Salisbury township of Harare.

Candidates Start Last 4 Weeks Of Campaign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon entered the crucial last four weeks of the presidential election campaign today far apart—geographically and in lack of approval of the other's programs.

Kennedy was booked for his deepest campaign penetration of the South with stops in Georgia and South Carolina. His grueling day also will include trips to Pittsburgh and New York City.

Nixon, on his way to vote-rich California tomorrow, scheduled speeches today at Denver and Salt Lake City. He will devote tomorrow through Friday to his first major campaign swing in his home state.

The vice presidential nominees also were plunging into the fray with increased vigor. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson set out today on a 3,500-mile tour designed to restore Democratic strength in the eight states of the once solid South. His GOP opponent, Henry Cabot Lodge, was at San Francisco.

Kennedy, buoyed by the reception he received in northeastern Ohio yesterday, flew this morning from Louisville, Ky., to Warm Springs, Ga., where President Franklin D. Roosevelt died.

The Democratic presidential nominee used the visit to FDR's "Little White House" as the occasion to accuse Nixon, in a prepared speech, of "election-year hypocrisy" in the medical field—and to offer his own health program.

In a "new frontiers of health" program, Kennedy called for "more adequate" medical care for the aged, federal grants for new or improved medical, dental and public health schools, loans and scholarships for students and grants for renovating older hospitals.

Kennedy also proposed long-term grants for increased medical research and expanded rehabilitation.

He charged that health problems "have been neglected for eight years by a party 'frozen in the ice of its own indifference.'"

Nixon rested yesterday at Billings, Mont., but issued a formal statement accusing Kennedy of "inventing issues where in fact they do not exist."

The Republican candidate also charged Kennedy's proposed spending programs would involve "return to runaway inflation or . . . increased federal taxation on the American people."

The vice president was suffering a mild but annoying cold, but his press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said Nixon was determined "to get a running start this week" in the stretch run before election day.

Lodge Wants Negro For Cabinet Post

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I would like to see a Negro in the cabinet; I am for it," Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican vice presidential nominee, said yesterday.

He was answering a panelist's question on the nationally televised "Face the Nation" program.

Lodge expressed belief that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominees, showed "a much greater sureness of touch" in discussing foreign policy in Friday's TV debate with Sen. John Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate.

Russ Premier Will Leave U.S. Thursday

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations awaited Premier Nikita Khrushchev's next appearance before the General Assembly, probably tonight, after hearing him say once more, "We shall never start a war."

Khrushchev made the statement last night on a television and radio interview, "Open End," in New York.

LEAVES THURSDAY

The Soviet premier said he is going home Thursday. In the next four days he is expected to take every opportunity to further publicize the many proposals he has advanced, formally and informally, since he came to the Assembly, three weeks ago.

They include reorganizing the U.N., replacing Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, admitting Red China, another summit conference, a plan for disarmament, and a special session of the Assembly—meeting somewhere in Europe, not in New York—to discuss disarmament.

LEADERS LEAVING

Most of the international high brass will have gone from New York before the end of the week.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India left last night for London. He said he was "a little disappointed" in the present session of the Assembly, adding, "but by and large I'm glad I came."

Khrushchev's televised interview lasted more than two hours, but it was largely a warm-over of the things he has been saying in and out of the Assembly.

These were some of his main points:

1. "We shall never start a war. We do not need a war. Categorically, we shall never start a war. So you can sleep in peace."

2. The Soviet Union "already has proposed" an agreement to embargo arms shipments to other countries. "We are ready to sign an agreement with you right now."

3. The U-2 flights proved that President Eisenhower was not sincere in saying he wanted peace.

4. Just before he left Moscow for the U.N., he received "definite information" that the United States was about to send another U-2 over Soviet territory. He said he warned Llewellyn Thompson, American ambassador to the Soviet Union, that the plane would be shot down. Thereafter, he concluded, American authorities canceled the flight.

NO U.N. PROBE

5. He won't agree to a U.N. investigation of the American RB-47 plane shot down by the Soviets because that is a domestic matter.

6. The U.N. will die unless it accedes to his demand for reorganization of the secretariat. He wants three secretaries-general instead of just one.

7. He won't agree to a worldwide plebiscite giving all peoples the right to vote on whether they want self-government.

8. "With regard to Berlin—and the German problem—what is it we want exactly? We want to have a peace treaty signed—with the two existing German states."

Florida Governor Takes New Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida today accepted a three year term as president of the National Assn. of Broadcasters.

The association's 43-man board approved the selection of Collins to succeed Harold E. Fellows, who died March 8.

Collins will take over his new duties in early January when his term as governor expires.

Trees growing in the open, singly or in small groups, are more in danger of being struck by lightning than those in a dense forest.

Strikers Let Non-Strikers In G.E. Plant

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The striking International Union of Electrical Workers permitted non-strikers to enter the General Electric Co. plant here today for the first time since the union posted pickets last Thursday.

John Shambo, president of Local 301, said the local's executive board had decided yesterday it would be unfair to continue barring salaried workers because salaried workers were entering struck G. E. plants elsewhere.

Shambo also said the local had proved that it could close the plant, which is G.E. headquarters. Last week, city officials declared a state of emergency after violence.

The union estimated at least 3,500 pickets were on duty today but said they had been instructed not to bar entry.

More violence had been feared here and in Syracuse, N.Y., but none was reported in either city this morning as the union's nationwide strike against the company entered its second week.

The number of employees who reported for work in each city was not determined immediately.

Company security guards summoned tow trucks and had the cars hauled to the plant parking lots.

MONTY ADMITS HE FINALLY MEETS MASTER

ALTON, England (AP)—Field Marshall Viscount Montgomery, still mopping up after the battle of Isington Mill, today admitted he'd been outflanked and out-maneuvered.

Britain's famous World War II commander was forced on the retreat over the weekend by floods that invaded his home.

After a night of torrential rain, Montgomery's home, Isington Mill, was threatened.

Water swirled down the driveway and into the garage.

The household retreated to the second floor.

The fight raged for hours. Finally the floods subsided.

Bagley Campaigns After Operation

Republican state assembly candidate William T. Bagley, bouncing back from an appendix operation, was in Healdsburg all day today campaigning against Everett Matzen.

Tomorrow, he'll be back in Marin with two meetings scheduled. One is with the Marin Business and Professional Women at Rickey's at 6:30 p.m., when he will discuss state ballot propositions. At 8:30 p.m., he will be in Terra Linda to address the American Assn. of University Women.

Bagley underwent an appendectomy at Marin General Hospital on Sept. 29. Six days later he was out of the hospital and back on the campaign trail.

Harbor Point Rezoning Decision Again Delayed

Marin County is on the verge of costly waterfront residential development "of a sort never seen before and among the finest such projects in the world," attorney Bryon R. McCarthy told the Marin County Planning Commission today in urging rezoning of Harbor Point on the Tiburon Peninsula.

He showed architect's sketches involving "balconies and gardens, two-story apartments and penthouses with garden areas . . . values of $50,000 to $100,000 each with the penthouses probably more," and declared:

"People will purchase this type of apartment in the right location, and there isn't a righter location than Harbor Point . . . People will come here from all over the world for such things."

Having already continued three rezoning applications from Strawberry developer Samuel R. Neider, and being notified that opposition of the Strawberry Property Owners Assn. continued, the commissioners again continued the matter until Oct. 24. McCarthy said he felt that further check-up would only show more about the wonderful opportunities.

Clifford Young, president of the Strawberry property group, said his association had studied the Neider proposals, met with Neider, but got "answers of a general 'no' all down the line" to compromise proposals.

Planning Director Mary Summers said the staff recommended approval of two of three Neider requests. First was for apartment zoning of 12 acres near Highway 101 and toward the entrance of Golden Gate Theological Seminary. The other was for change from agricultural to single-family of 72 acres on the east side of Strawberry Point.

But she said the staff recommended against rezoning for apartments of 25 acres from the end of East Strawberry Drive and including the shoreline of Strawberry Point—the area concerning which McCarthy grew so eloquent as ideal high-cost development for a point now "in a raw stage."

McCarthy contended opposition came from "what sounds like five organizations but is mainly 10 families."

since the last tax raise, Seidel explained, the district has doubled the size of the Neil Cummins School and built the Henry C. Hall School and plans on opening the Marner's Cove School next fall.

The tax increase would go to operating expenses only, with no increase as far as capital outlay is concerned, Seidel stated.

He reported that the district has been "operating on an austerity program" this year and has been forced to cut its sport program and school lunch subsidy.

In addition to the $1.35 tax rate that is used for operation expenses, the district also levies an "override tax." The amount of this tax is determined annually by the county.

Seidel said that next year's override taxes "probably won't vary" from this year's 40 cents per $100 assessed valuation with five cents going to teacher's retirement; two cents to retirement of classified employees with social security; 28 cents to retirement of a state loan and five cents to community service.

The Larkspur School District tax was placed on the ballot with the Tamalpais High School electiton to cut the cost of the special election in half, Seidel said. The usual fee of $600 for calling a special election was reduced to $300 he noted.

Donald N. Fox, vice chairman of the citizens committee working for the passage of the tax hike, said there has been no organized opposition to the tax increase. He stressed that the district has been "on a crash program in finances" and that money was needed for the hiring of teachers for the Mariner's Cove School and to split up double sessions now operating.

Seafood Store Opens Tomorrow

Tonelli's Seafoods, a new retail seafood store and restaurant, is to open tomorrow at 915 Lootens Place, San Rafael.

The business, owned by Jerry Tonelli, a former teacher from Southern California now living at 22 Glenwood Drive, San Rafael, is a change of location and name of Seafoods of Marin, previously at 511 Francisco Boulevard.

Tonelli said he intends to have a patio restaurant with 20 tables for lunches and seafood specialties in the open area between the store and the rear of Tom McGruder's, but that it will not be ready for another three weeks.

Guard's Fort Point Lifeboat Station rescued the four and towed the boat to Fort Point where the water was pumped out. The sloop started off again on its own power, but the Coast Guard had to go to the rescue again. The vessel was then towed to the San Francisco Yacht Club at Belvedere.

The 27-foot sloop Coquette, with Mr. and Mrs. Walden F. Raymond of 50 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito, aboard, was reported missing yesterday. The Coast Guard searched the area around Drake's Bay, from Point Bonita to Bolinas Point, then was notified by another sloop that the Coquette had returned to San Francisco because of rough weather. She was later found off Yellow Bluff near Sausalito, disabled by a ripped mainsail, with the Waldens aboard, and was towed to the Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito.

Four Peninsula and San Francisco men were rescued yesterday when their 20-foot outboard motor boat capsized on Yellow Bluff near Sausalito. The men made it ashore to the rocks. The Coast Guard towed the boat to Fort Baker, then returned for the passengers.

The Coast Guard also: Towed the 34-foot cabin cruiser Dolores into San Rafael Saturday after it was disabled by engine trouble in the bay; towed into Sausalito Saturday a sloop with two persons aboard that lost its mast six and one-half miles out from the Golden Gate Bridge; searched the bay for the 36-foot ketch Sea Biscuit which left the San Francisco Yacht Club in Belvedere for Berkeley yesterday at 3 p.m.; was later notified the Sea Biscuit arrived in Berkeley at 6:30, delayed by rough weather; reported that a private boat had towed in a sloop with a broken mast off Zack's in Sausalito.

The blustery winds that pounded the bay and coast and caused much of the havoc for small craft were expected to abate today. Cloudy skies with falling winds were forecast tonight and tomorrow.

Temperatures will drop to 50 to 55 tonight, the Weather Bureau said. The five-day forecast for Northern California indicated no rain.

Part Of Yacht Harbor Area Gets Rezoning

Another step toward development of the George Zaro yacht harbor project near Sabella's Restaurant on Highway 101 was taken by the Marin County Planning Commission today through approval of rezoning of parts of the 30-acre property for commercial or residential use.

Hugh Allen, attorney for Zaro, told the commission, "I want you to have control of what is being done, as a protection for Mr. Zaro."

Planning Director Mary Summers commented that "no one has given greater encouragement to Richardson Bay development than has Mr. Zaro."

Allen said "the boating fraternity" would be happy with prospects of 24-hour access to the Zaro harbor through future dredging of the Saucelito Canal.

The rezoned property comprises tide lots, some of which will be changed from agricultural to commercial with highway frontage regulations, some to planned residential.

A resolution adopted by the commission said that commercial reclassification "would conform to the pattern of zoning and anticipated uses for land" parellel to the Redwood Highway while the residential part could be developed "consistent with the general land use pattern recommended in the master plan of Richardson Bay."

Three Still In Hospital After Crash

Three persons were still hospitalized but in good condition today as the result of a four-car collision on Highway 101 near Corte Madera Saturday night.

California Highway Patrol investigation indicated that Kynoch's car started a chain reaction pile-up as it crossed the divider strip northbound at 10:50 p.m.

Also involved were another northbound vehicle driven by Wesley H. Fernandez, 43, of Fort Bragg, and southbound cars driven by Steve Marshall, 21, and A/1c David J. Cassidy, 22, of the 666th Aircraft and Airways Communications Squadron on Mount Tamalpais.

Marshall was treated for a cut right leg and head cuts but was released from hospital. Occupants of the other two cars suffered minor shakeup.

Auto Backs Over Child

Two-year-old Daniel Lee was slightly injured in San Anselmo Saturday when a car he had apparently crawled under backed over him.

Jerome C. Cornell, a San Francisco employee of a Las Vegas firm, told police that he felt a bump as he was starting to pull away from the curb at 1226 San Anselmo Avenue. Looking under the car, he found the tot crying.

Daniel was taken to Marin General Hospital where his injuries were described as negligible, but he was held overnight for observation before being sent home.

Police said that there were several green apples under Cornell's car, and the lad had apparently been after them. He was a block away from his home at 1328 San Anselmo Avenue.

Cornell was not cited.

BURGLARY

lins, a trumpet, trombone, an $815 bassoon, a 35 milimeter camera, amplifier, two portable typewriters and a briefcase, $125 in cash and $200 in checks.

The theft was discovered about 6:45 a.m. yesterday when Walter F. Mullen opened his Walt Mullen Signs shop next door to the music store and saw papers strewn about.

Mullen, of 415 Loring Avenue, Mill Valley, walked to a nearby restaurant and notified several San Rafael police officers who were having breakfast.

Nothng was taken from his store, where the burglars had pried open a front door, but a connecting door to the music store had been taken off its hinges.

The burglars jimmied open a cabinet-type safe and took the cash and checks but overlooked a $50 bill in a bank book. They roamed the two-story building, taking musical instruments from the display window and storeroom and office equipment from the second floor.

Shortly before 5 a.m., two San Anselmo policemen on patrol—Sgt. John Orr and Officer Leonard Musselle—spotted a car speeding out of the business driveway, which is near the San Anselmo line, and down Fourth Street. They copied the license number and notified San Rafael police.

The vehicle was registered to Charles E. Parrish, 25, of San Francisco, who was paroled from San Quentin on May 7 after serving time for a narcotics conviction in Los Angeles.

Acting on a teletype from San Rafael police, officers of the San Francisco Police Department rousted Parrish out of bed at 10 a.m.

Seven hours later, Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and Inspector Nicholas Giampoli of San Rafael carrying shotguns, and six San Francisco policemen entered the house of William Howard Walker in San Francisco.

They waited more than an hour until the 27-year-old house painter and convicted burglar arrived home. They took him to San Francisco City Prison.

Officers found a .38 caliber revolver in Walker's closet. The music store loot was found in the two men's houses and in Parrish's car.

Parrish was a reporter for the San Quentin News covering general news and features until he was paroled.

He said he had been writing short stories for magazines since then but had earned only a nominal amount.

Robert W. Oleny, of 842 Hacienda Way, Santa Venetia, coowner of the music shop with James T. Joyce of 100 Bayo Vista Way, San Raafel, said most of the instruments on display were for rental to high school students.

"The police did a terrific job," he exclaimed today.

The store, which has been at the Miracle Mile location for two years, was looted last year of $900 worth of instruments by a man who smashed a plate glass display window. The thief was never caught.

Firemen Stricken

John C. Terris, assistant chief of the Sausalito Fire Department, was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in San Francisco yesterday at about 11:30 a.m. after a heart attack at his home. Terris, who lives at 615 Locust Road, has been with the department for 18 years.

San Anselmo Police Nab Drug Suspect

San Anselmo police arrested a boastfully self-confessed narcotics addict early today when the "friend" he was waiting for turned out to be non-existent.

Fred Kitzmiller, 20, of 200 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, was observed acting strangely in the driveway of a service station shortly after midnight by Sgt. John Orr and Officer Len Musselle. He appeared to be having trouble picking up something from the ground.

"No trouble," he said. "Just waiting for a friend in the rest room." Both the station's restrooms were locked and empty. Suspicions aroused, the two officers searched Kitzmiller and found a bottle containing 75 pills of assorted colors that appeared to be barbiturates.

In addition, he was carrying about an ounce of what he said was marijuana.

"Bought it in San Francisco for $20," he boasted. "I know a dozen places over there where I can make a buy." He said he had been a user for at least four years.

Orr and Musselle booked him at county jail on suspicion of narcotics violation and vagrancy, and gave San Francisco police the names of Kitzmiller's alleged suppliers.

Fairfax Woman Hurt In Auto Collision

Mrs. Kathleen W. Stubbs, 47, of 35 Berry Trail, Fairfax, was treated at Marin General Hospital yesterday for minor injuries after crashing her car into the rear of one driven by Elsie Ellison of 55 Hillside Road, Fairfax.

She told San Anselmo police that the Ellison auto stopped suddenly at the intersection of Madrone Avenue and Center Street and that she was unable to stop in time. She was cited for following too closely.

Earth Moved To Site Of Project 17

Yesterday's "operation Big Haul" to move topsoil the baseball diamond at Mill Valley's recreation Project 17 turned out to be "operation dirt in the eye."

However, despite the windy day and the absence of one loader, 850 yards of topsoil was moved by National Guardsmen of Marin and Sonoma Counties together with other men from Mill Valley and its environs.

NOT AVAILABLE

G. W. (Bob) Robertson, chairman of the moving operation, said today that one loader from the national guard was not available so the proposed amount of 1,500 yards of soil could not be moved.

He said he plans to organize a contractors' day to get the contractors to finish hauling the dirt. No date has been set yet.

The operation started at 9:30 a.m. and continued until 3:30 p.m. Mill Valley police assisted the guardsmen with traffic on East Blithedale Avenue by keeping cars moving whose occupants wanted to stop and sightsee.

Allen McClure, lone loader operator from Goheen Consruction Co., "ate dirt all day," Robertson said. "When we tried to get a picture of him we got a big blub of dust, that's all."

THERE ALL DAY

Mayor Robert D. Huber, City Manager A. E. Almcrants and City Engineer Stanley M. Bala and his partner Jesper Strandgaard were present all day, Robertson said. "Bala got everything going," he said, and "then he personally ran the water sprinkling truck to keep the dust down."

The topsoil came from George C. Goheen's Scott Valley subdivision. The loader was loaned by T. K. McCaffrey, Mill Valley contractor.

Guardsmen put in a water line, Robertson said, from the main line to the traffic island near Roques Moraes Drive which is proposed to be developed into a memorial to Talcott Seaver.

Workers also worked on moving the approach from the old trestle overpass, Robertson and William Woods starting this project on Saturday with a bulldozer. E. Andrew Lax represented the Mill Valley Optimist Club at the work project.

Toy Bank Burglars Leave Some Loot

Toy bank burglars may have had some qualms about looting a Marin City apartment yesterday. They stole $52 but left $12 in the bank.

Nancy Bell Smith of House 681, Marin City, told sheriff's deputies she discovered the loss when she returned home at 4 p.m. She said the thieves apparently climbed through an unlocked window, found the toy bank in a bedroom closet and opened it with a hairpin.

Better Health Through Knowledge

Arthritis

- Parkinson's Disease
- Rectal Fistula
- Diabetes Explained

Q. Is arthritis a modern disease and can it be helped through diet?

A. The answer is "No" to both questions. The very first evidence of arthritis in any creature has been preserved in the spine of a Comanchean dinosaur 100,000,000 years old. Arthritis is reported in the remains of neolithic man, ancient Egyptians, Peruvians and early American Indians, to name only a few examples. A well-balanced diet is indicated for arthritics (as it is for all other persons) but no special food or vitamin has been found helpful.

Q. My father has Parkinson's disease. He takes medicine and does fairly well but complains of excessive amounts of saliva. Can this be helped?

A. Various drugs used in treatment of Parkinson's disease tend to dry the mucous membranes but there is nothing very effective, so far as we know, for diminishing excessive saliva flow which occurs in some persons with this condition.

Q. Can a rectal fistula turn into cancer?

A. Any open sore, in any location, that fails to heal in a reasonable time should be attended to but it is unlikely that the fistula will predispose to cancer. Most people probably postpone necessary rectal surgery because of the fear of postoperative pain. Rectal surgery can be well tolerated if proper measures are taken. Our advice? See your doctor!

Q. Is diabetes inherited or caused by being overweight?

A. Both. Diabetes is basically a disease of heredity in which carbohydrate (sugar and starch) utilization is upset by inadequate insulin. However, obesity is a very important factor which, in the presence of a predisposition to diabetes, makes its development more likely.

Questions directed to Science Editors, P.O. Box 396, Madison Sq. Sta., N. Y. 10, N. Y. will be incorporated in these columns when possible.

Six Months Jail Given In Road Death

Albert W. Ellis was put on three years probation and sentenced to serve six months in the Marin County Jail today for felony hit-run driving in the roadside death of a British war bride in Tamalpais Valley.

The 40-year-old San Rafael painting contractor was sentenced by Marin County Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori.

He was found guilty by Judge Jordan L. Martinelli on the basis of police reports on Aug. 22. Felony hit-run driving carries a maximum sentence of five years in prison.

Judge Martinelli said Ellis, of 333 Locust Avenue, was apparently in a stupor but was definitely guilty of not giving aid to Mrs. Helen Bell, 39, of 307 Tennessee Avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

The woman plunged from Ellis' panel truck as he drove her home from the Fireside Bar.

Ellis admitted returning to the woman's body three times before calling the sheriff's office and using a fictitious name over the telephone.

He has been free on $1,575 bail.

Harbor Point Rezoning Decision Again Delayed

Marin County is on the verge of costly waterfront residential development "of a sort never seen before and among the finest such projects in the world," attorney Bryon R. McCarthy told the Marin County Planning Commission today in urging rezoning of Harbor Point on the Tiburon Peninsula.

He showed architect's sketches involving "balconies and gardens, two-story apartments and penthouses with garden areas . . . values of $50,000 to $100,000 each with the penthouses probably more," and declared:

"People will purchase this type of apartment in the right location, and there isn't a righter location than Harbor Point . . . People will come here from all over the world for such things."

Having already continued three rezoning applications from Strawberry developer Samuel R. Neider, and being notified that opposition of the Strawberry Property Owners Assn. continued, the commissioners again continued the matter until Oct. 24. McCarthy said he felt that further check-up would only show more about the wonderful opportunities.

Clifford Young, president of the Strawberry property group, said his association had studied the Neider proposals, met with Neider, but got "answers of a general 'no' all down the line" to compromise proposals.

Planning Director Mary Summers said the staff recommended approval of two of three Neider requests. First was for apartment zoning of 12 acres near Highway 101 and toward the entrance of Golden Gate Theological Seminary. The other was for change from agricultural to single-family of 72 acres on the east side of Strawberry Point.

But she said the staff recommended against rezoning for apartments of 25 acres from the end of East Strawberry Drive and including the shoreline of Strawberry Point—the area concerning which McCarthy grew so eloquent as ideal high-cost development for a point now "in a raw stage."

McCarthy contended opposition came from "what sounds like five organizations but is mainly 10 families."

since the last tax raise, Seidel explained, the district has doubled the size of the Neil Cummins School and built the Henry C. Hall School and plans on opening the Marner's Cove School next fall.

The tax increase would go to operating expenses only, with no increase as far as capital outlay is concerned, Seidel stated.

He reported that the district has been "operating on an austerity program" this year and has been forced to cut its sport program and school lunch subsidy.

In addition to the $1.35 tax rate that is used for operation expenses, the district also levies an "override tax." The amount of this tax is determined annually by the county.

Seidel said that next year's override taxes "probably won't vary" from this year's 40 cents per $100 assessed valuation with five cents going to teacher's retirement; two cents to retirement of classified employees with social security; 28 cents to retirement of a state loan and five cents to community service.

The Larkspur School District tax was placed on the ballot with the Tamalpais High School electiton to cut the cost of the special election in half, Seidel said. The usual fee of $600 for calling a special election was reduced to $300 he noted.

Donald N. Fox, vice chairman of the citizens committee working for the passage of the tax hike, said there has been no organized opposition to the tax increase. He stressed that the district has been "on a crash program in finances" and that money was needed for the hiring of teachers for the Mariner's Cove School and to split up double sessions now operating.

Seafood Store Opens Tomorrow

Tonelli's Seafoods, a new retail seafood store and restaurant, is to open tomorrow at 915 Lootens Place, San Rafael.

The business, owned by Jerry Tonelli, a former teacher from Southern California now living at 22 Glenwood Drive, San Rafael, is a change of location and name of Seafoods of Marin, previously at 511 Francisco Boulevard.

Tonelli said he intends to have a patio restaurant with 20 tables for lunches and seafood specialties in the open area between the store and the rear of Tom McGruder's, but that it will not be ready for another three weeks.

DROWNING

Guard's Fort Point Lifeboat Station rescued the four and towed the boat to Fort Point where the water was pumped out. The sloop started off again on its own power, but the Coast Guard had to go to the rescue again. The vessel was then towed to the San Francisco Yacht Club at Belvedere.

The 27-foot sloop Coquette, with Mr. and Mrs. Walden F. Raymond of 50 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito, aboard, was reported missing yesterday. The Coast Guard searched the area around Drake's Bay, from Point Bonita to Bolinas Point, then was notified by another sloop that the Coquette had returned to San Francisco because of rough weather. She was later found off Yellow Bluff near Sausalito, disabled by a ripped mainsail, with the Waldens aboard, and was towed to the Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito.

Four Peninsula and San Francisco men were rescued yesterday when their 20-foot outboard motor boat capsized on Yellow Bluff near Sausalito. The men made it ashore to the rocks. The Coast Guard towed the boat to Fort Baker, then returned for the passengers.

The Coast Guard also: Towed the 34-foot cabin cruiser Dolores into San Rafael Saturday after it was disabled by engine trouble in the bay; towed into Sausalito Saturday a sloop with two persons aboard that lost its mast six and one-half miles out from the Golden Gate Bridge; searched the bay for the 36-foot ketch Sea Biscuit which left the San Francisco Yacht Club in Belvedere for Berkeley yesterday at 3 p.m.; was later notified the Sea Biscuit arrived in Berkeley at 6:30, delayed by rough weather; reported that a private boat had towed in a sloop with a broken mast off Zack's in Sausalito.

The blustery winds that pounded the bay and coast and caused much of the havoc for small craft were expected to abate today. Cloudy skies with falling winds were forecast tonight and tomorrow.

Temperatures will drop to 50 to 55 tonight, the Weather Bureau said. The five-day forecast for Northern California indicated no rain.

Part Of Yacht Harbor Area Gets Rezoning

Another step toward development of the George Zaro yacht harbor project near Sabella's Restaurant on Highway 101 was taken by the Marin County Planning Commission today through approval of rezoning of parts of the 30-acre property for commercial or residential use.

Hugh Allen, attorney for Zaro, told the commission, "I want you to have control of what is being done, as a protection for Mr. Zaro."

Planning Director Mary Summers commented that "no one has given greater encouragement to Richardson Bay development than has Mr. Zaro."

Allen said "the boating fraternity" would be happy with prospects of 24-hour access to the Zaro harbor through future dredging of the Saucelito Canal.

The rezoned property comprises tide lots, some of which will be changed from agricultural to commercial with highway frontage regulations, some to planned residential.

A resolution adopted by the commission said that commercial reclassification "would conform to the pattern of zoning and anticipated uses for land" parellel to the Redwood Highway while the residential part could be developed "consistent with the general land use pattern recommended in the master plan of Richardson Bay."

Three Still In Hospital After Crash

Three persons were still hospitalized but in good condition today as the result of a four-car collision on Highway 101 near Corte Madera Saturday night.

Still at Marin General Hospital were Mrs. Judith Marshall, 19, of 735 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, who suffered cuts on face and scalp; Charles Kynoch, 60, of San Francisco, fractured left hip, and Kynoch's wife, Edna, who suffered a broken right wrist and cut lip.

California Highway Patrol investigation indicated that Kynoch's car started a chain reaction pile-up as it crossed the divider strip northbound at 10:50 p.m.

Also involved were another northbound vehicle driven by Wesley H. Fernandez, 43, of Fort Bragg, and southbound cars driven by Steve Marshall, 21, and A/1c David J. Cassidy, 22, of the 666th Aircraft and Airways Communications Squadron on Mount Tamalpais.

Marshall was treated for a cut right leg and head cuts but was released from hospital. Occupants of the other two cars suffered minor shakeup.

Auto Backs Over Child

Two-year-old Daniel Lee was slightly injured in San Anselmo Saturday when a car he had apparently crawled under backed over him.

Jerome C. Cornell, a San Francisco employee of a Las Vegas firm, told police that he felt a bump as he was starting to pull away from the curb at 1226 San Anselmo Avenue. Looking under the car, he found the tot crying.

Daniel was taken to Marin General Hospital where his injuries were described as negligible, but he was held overnight for observation before being sent home.

Police said that there were several green apples under Cornell's car, and the lad had apparently been after them. He was a block away from his home at 1328 San Anselmo Avenue.

Cornell was not cited.

lins, a trumpet, trombone, an $815 bassoon, a 35 milimeter camera, amplifier, two portable typewriters and a briefcase, $125 in cash and $200 in checks.

The theft was discovered about 6:45 a.m. yesterday when Walter F. Mullen opened his Walt Mullen Signs shop next door to the music store and saw papers strewn about.

Mullen, of 415 Loring Avenue, Mill Valley, walked to a nearby restaurant and notified several San Rafael police officers who were having breakfast.

Nothng was taken from his store, where the burglars had pried open a front door, but a connecting door to the music store had been taken off its hinges.

The burglars jimmied open a cabinet-type safe and took the cash and checks but overlooked a $50 bill in a bank book. They roamed the two-story building, taking musical instruments from the display window and storeroom and office equipment from the second floor.

Shortly before 5 a.m., two San Anselmo policemen on patrol—Sgt. John Orr and Officer Leonard Musselle—spotted a car speeding out of the business driveway, which is near the San Anselmo line, and down Fourth Street. They copied the license number and notified San Rafael police.

The vehicle was registered to Charles E. Parrish, 25, of San Francisco, who was paroled from San Quentin on May 7 after serving time for a narcotics conviction in Los Angeles.

Acting on a teletype from San Rafael police, officers of the San Francisco Police Department rousted Parrish out of bed at 10 a.m.

Seven hours later, Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and Inspector Nicholas Giampoli of San Rafael carrying shotguns, and six San Francisco policemen entered the house of William Howard Walker in San Francisco.

They waited more than an hour until the 27-year-old house painter and convicted burglar arrived home. They took him to San Francisco City Prison.

Officers found a .38 caliber revolver in Walker's closet. The music store loot was found in the two men's houses and in Parrish's car.

Parrish was a reporter for the San Quentin News covering general news and features until he was paroled.

He said he had been writing short stories for magazines since then but had earned only a nominal amount.

Robert W. Oleny, of 842 Hacienda Way, Santa Venetia, coowner of the music shop with James T. Joyce of 100 Bayo Vista Way, San Raafel, said most of the instruments on display were for rental to high school students.

"The police did a terrific job," he exclaimed today.

The store, which has been at the Miracle Mile location for two years, was looted last year of $900 worth of instruments by a man who smashed a plate glass display window. The thief was never caught.

San Anselmo Police Nab Drug Suspect

San Anselmo police arrested a boastfully self-confessed narcotics addict early today when the "friend" he was waiting for turned out to be non-existent.

Fred Kitzmiller, 20, of 200 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, was observed acting strangely in the driveway of a service station shortly after midnight by Sgt. John Orr and Officer Len Musselle. He appeared to be having trouble picking up something from the ground.

"No trouble," he said. "Just waiting for a friend in the rest room." Both the station's restrooms were locked and empty. Suspicions aroused, the two officers searched Kitzmiller and found a bottle containing 75 pills of assorted colors that appeared to be barbiturates.

In addition, he was carrying about an ounce of what he said was marijuana.

"Bought it in San Francisco for $20," he boasted. "I know a dozen places over there where I can make a buy." He said he had been a user for at least four years.

Orr and Musselle booked him at county jail on suspicion of narcotics violation and vagrancy, and gave San Francisco police the names of Kitzmiller's alleged suppliers.

Fairfax Woman Hurt In Auto Collision

Mrs. Kathleen W. Stubbs, 47, of 35 Berry Trail, Fairfax, was treated at Marin General Hospital yesterday for minor injuries after crashing her car into the rear of one driven by Elsie Ellison of 55 Hillside Road, Fairfax.

She told San Anselmo police that the Ellison auto stopped suddenly at the intersection of Madrone Avenue and Center Street and that she was unable to stop in time. She was cited for following too closely.

Earth Moved To Site Of Project 17

Yesterday's "operation Big Haul" to move topsoil the baseball diamond at Mill Valley's recreation Project 17 turned out to be "operation dirt in the eye."

However, despite the windy day and the absence of one loader, 850 yards of topsoil was moved by National Guardsmen of Marin and Sonoma Counties together with other men from Mill Valley and its environs.

NOT AVAILABLE

G. W. (Bob) Robertson, chairman of the moving operation, said today that one loader from the national guard was not available so the proposed amount of 1,500 yards of soil could not be moved.

He said he plans to organize a contractors' day to get the contractors to finish hauling the dirt. No date has been set yet.

The operation started at 9:30 a.m. and continued until 3:30 p.m. Mill Valley police assisted the guardsmen with traffic on East Blithedale Avenue by keeping cars moving whose occupants wanted to stop and sightsee.

Allen McClure, lone loader operator from Goheen Consruction Co., "ate dirt all day," Robertson said. "When we tried to get a picture of him we got a big blub of dust, that's all."

THERE ALL DAY

Mayor Robert D. Huber, City Manager A. E. Almcrants and City Engineer Stanley M. Bala and his partner Jesper Strandgaard were present all day, Robertson said. "Bala got everything going," he said, and "then he personally ran the water sprinkling truck to keep the dust down."

The topsoil came from George C. Goheen's Scott Valley subdivision. The loader was loaned by T. K. McCaffrey, Mill Valley contractor.

Guardsmen put in a water line, Robertson said, from the main line to the traffic island near Roques Moraes Drive which is proposed to be developed into a memorial to Talcott Seaver.

Workers also worked on moving the approach from the old trestle overpass, Robertson and William Woods starting this project on Saturday with a bulldozer. E. Andrew Lax represented the Mill Valley Optimist Club at the work project.

Toy Bank Burglars Leave Some Loot

Toy bank burglars may have had some qualms about looting a Marin City apartment yesterday. They stole $52 but left $12 in the bank.

Nancy Bell Smith of House 681, Marin City, told sheriff's deputies she discovered the loss when she returned home at 4 p.m. She said the thieves apparently climbed through an unlocked window, found the toy bank in a bedroom closet and opened it with a hairpin.

Arthritis

- Parkinson's Disease
- Rectal Fistula
- Diabetes Explained

Q. Is arthritis a modern disease and can it be helped through diet?

A. The answer is "No" to both questions. The very first evidence of arthritis in any creature has been preserved in the spine of a Comanchean dinosaur 100,000,000 years old. Arthritis is reported in the remains of neolithic man, ancient Egyptians, Peruvians and early American Indians, to name only a few examples. A well-balanced diet is indicated for arthritics (as it is for all other persons) but no special food or vitamin has been found helpful.

Q. My father has Parkinson's disease. He takes medicine and does fairly well but complains of excessive amounts of saliva. Can this be helped?

A. Various drugs used in treatment of Parkinson's disease tend to dry the mucous membranes but there is nothing very effective, so far as we know, for diminishing excessive saliva flow which occurs in some persons with this condition.

Q. Can a rectal fistula turn into cancer?

A. Any open sore, in any location, that fails to heal in a reasonable time should be attended to but it is unlikely that the fistula will predispose to cancer. Most people probably postpone necessary rectal surgery because of the fear of postoperative pain. Rectal surgery can be well tolerated if proper measures are taken. Our advice? See your doctor!

Q. Is diabetes inherited or caused by being overweight?

A. Both. Diabetes is basically a disease of heredity in which carbohydrate (sugar and starch) utilization is upset by inadequate insulin. However, obesity is a very important factor which, in the presence of a predisposition to diabetes, makes its development more likely.

Questions directed to Science Editors, P.O. Box 396, Madison Sq. Sta., N. Y. 10, N. Y. will be incorporated in these columns when possible.

Six Months Jail Given In Road Death

Albert W. Ellis was put on three years probation and sentenced to serve six months in the Marin County Jail today for felony hit-run driving in the roadside death of a British war bride in Tamalpais Valley.

The 40-year-old San Rafael painting contractor was sentenced by Marin County Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori.

He was found guilty by Judge Jordan L. Martinelli on the basis of police reports on Aug. 22. Felony hit-run driving carries a maximum sentence of five years in prison.

Judge Martinelli said Ellis, of 333 Locust Avenue, was apparently in a stupor but was definitely guilty of not giving aid to Mrs. Helen Bell, 39, of 307 Tennessee Avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

The woman plunged from Ellis' panel truck as he drove her home from the Fireside Bar.

Ellis admitted returning to the woman's body three times before calling the sheriff's office and using a fictitious name over the telephone.

He has been free on $1,575 bail.

High Court Stands Pat On Tidelands

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its May 31 ruling that limited the offshore boundaries of Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama to three statute miles.

The plea for reconsideration was rejected in a brief order without explanation.

The three Gulf Coast states maintained the three-mile limitation was unfair. They noted that Florida and Texas won a boundary line extending three leagues—10½ statute miles—into the gulf.

By reaffirming its earlier tidelands decision, the Supreme Court in effect awarded the federal government royalties on all petroleum pumped out of submerged lands more than three miles off the coasts of Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama.

In other orders issued in its first business session of its new term, the court:

1. Agreed to decide whether a Wilmington, Del., restaurant leasing property from a local government agency must serve Negroes.

2. Refused to review a $10,000 damage award to Gen. Harry H. Vaughn, former military aide to ex-President Harry S. Truman. A lower court awarded the judgment against Curtis Publishing Co., on Vaughn's complaint about the caption of a picture of him carried in the Saturday Evening Post.

3. Dismissed the appeal of Atlanta Newspapers, Inc., from a Georgia judge's ban against picture-taking in or around the courthouse in which he was hearing a case.

4. Agreed to decide whether the Justice Department can prosecute former Teamsters Union president Dave Beck and five trucking firm employers on charges they illegally loaned him $200,000.

5. Dismissed, with the consent of all parties, a suit by scientist Linus Pauling to halt fallout-producing nuclear tests by the United States.

Fairfax May Name New Councilman

Fairfax City Council will consider appointment of a new council member at 8 p.m. today to replace Lawrence F. (Larry) Walsh, who resigned Sept. 12.

If no one is appointed to fill the vacancy, a special election will have to be called, according to Mrs. Alice Leonesio, city clerk.

Walsh, a councilman for less than six months, resigned because he had accepted a position that required his moving to Chico. He was the second member of the council to quit within four months.

Also on tonight's agenda is the opening of bids for improvement of Center Boulevard, Mrs. Leonesio reported.

Goldfine Ruled Unable To Stand Trial

BOSTON (AP) — A federal judge ruled today Bernard Goldfine, Boston industrialist, is in need of psychiatric treatment and is unable to stand trial at this time on federal tax invasion charges.

Judge George C. Sweeney announcing the finding of three court-appointed psychiatrists today, said Goldfine, now 70, will remain in the custody of U. S. marshals for continued treatment.

Goldfine was scheduled to go on trial last Monday on indictments charging evasion of $791,745 in personal and corporation income taxes.

She was taken to San Rafael General Hospital and transferred to Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco.

High Tribunal Spurns Appeal Of Murderer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A condemned man's contention that California's gas chamber method of execution is unconstitutional failed today to impress the Supreme Court.

Without comment, the court rejected an appeal by Marion James Linden, under sentence to be executed for killing a Los Angeles policeman.

Death in a gas chamber, Linden said in the appeal, violates the U.S. Constitution's ban against cruel and unusual punishment.

In typewritten papers he prepared in San Quentin Prison's Death Row, Linden cited the gas execution May 2 of Caryl Chessman, notorious Los Angeles "red light bandit."

Chessman "was in the agony of a lingering death for six minutes," said Linden.

Such a lingering death, Linden's appeal argued, also violates the constitution's guarantees of due process and equal protection laws.

The policeman, Leo Wise, was slain in 1957. Three previous appeals by Linden, based on other grounds, were rejected by the Supreme Court in 1958, 1959 and earlier this year.

Leake Blisters Prop. 15 In Marin Address

A blistering attack on State Proposition 15 as a proposal that "bulges with dangerous inequities" was delivered by Paul R. Leake, third district member of the California Board of Equalization, at the San Rafael Rotary Club luncheon today.

Proposition 15 on the Nov. 8 ballot would apportion 20 of the 40 seats in the state Senate to Southern California. Seven new seats would go to Los Angeles alone.

Under the present system, the makeup of the Senate is based on counties, and the Assembly on population.

"Proposition 15 would jump the number of Los Angeles County Senators by 600 per cent, but most Northern California counties, including Marin, would be left at the curbstone to sell apples," said Leake.

The Woodland newspaperman emphasized that Marin and Sonoma counties, each of which has a senator at present, would have only one senator between them under the proposal.

Hopps Slated To Surrender In N.Y. Court

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A Belvedere millionaire and three New Yorkers were scheduled to surrender in superior court today to face indictments in connection with the alleged eight-million-dollar swindle of the Equitable Plan.

Attorneys said Stewart B. Hopps, Belvedere insurance man; Mrs. Ruby Schinasi, widow of a wealthy tobacco importer; Joseph D. Blau and Leon Drezner, both accountants, expected to have "reasonable" bail set for them when they give themselves up. All four were affiliated with the Equitable Plan.

Bail recommended by the court after the grand theft and conspiracy indictments were returned by the grand jury last week was placed at $250,000 for Mrs. Schinasi and $100,000 for each of the men.

Two other persons of the 12 indicted already have surrendered. They are Eliot E. Berkwit, former president of Equitable, and Walter P. Smith, a former Equitable director.

High Court Stands Pat On Tidelands

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its May 31 ruling that limited the offshore boundaries of Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama to three statute miles.

The plea for reconsideration was rejected in a brief order without explanation.

The three Gulf Coast states maintained the three-mile limitation was unfair. They noted that Florida and Texas won a boundary line extending three leagues—10½ statute miles—into the gulf.

By reaffirming its earlier tidelands decision, the Supreme Court in effect awarded the federal government royalties on all petroleum pumped out of submerged lands more than three miles off the coasts of Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama.

In other orders issued in its first business session of its new term, the court:

1. Agreed to decide whether a Wilmington, Del., restaurant leasing property from a local government agency must serve Negroes.

2. Refused to review a $10,000 damage award to Gen. Harry H. Vaughn, former military aide to ex-President Harry S. Truman. A lower court awarded the judgment against Curtis Publishing Co., on Vaughn's complaint about the caption of a picture of him carried in the Saturday Evening Post.

3. Dismissed the appeal of Atlanta Newspapers, Inc., from a Georgia judge's ban against picture-taking in or around the courthouse in which he was hearing a case.

4. Agreed to decide whether the Justice Department can prosecute former Teamsters Union president Dave Beck and five trucking firm employers on charges they illegally loaned him $200,000.

5. Dismissed, with the consent of all parties, a suit by scientist Linus Pauling to halt fallout-producing nuclear tests by the United States.

High Tribunal Spurns Appeal Of Murderer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A condemned man's contention that California's gas chamber method of execution is unconstitutional failed today to impress the Supreme Court.

Without comment, the court rejected an appeal by Marion James Linden, under sentence to be executed for killing a Los Angeles policeman.

Death in a gas chamber, Linden said in the appeal, violates the U.S. Constitution's ban against cruel and unusual punishment.

In typewritten papers he prepared in San Quentin Prison's Death Row, Linden cited the gas execution May 2 of Caryl Chessman, notorious Los Angeles "red light bandit."

Chessman "was in the agony of a lingering death for six minutes," said Linden.

Such a lingering death, Linden's appeal argued, also violates the constitution's guarantees of due process and equal protection laws.

The policeman, Leo Wise, was slain in 1957. Three previous appeals by Linden, based on other grounds, were rejected by the Supreme Court in 1958, 1959 and earlier this year.

Leake Blisters Prop. 15 In Marin Address

A blistering attack on State Proposition 15 as a proposal that "bulges with dangerous inequities" was delivered by Paul R. Leake, third district member of the California Board of Equalization, at the San Rafael Rotary Club luncheon today.

Proposition 15 on the Nov. 8 ballot would apportion 20 of the 40 seats in the state Senate to Southern California. Seven new seats would go to Los Angeles alone.

Fairfax May Name New Councilman

Fairfax City Council will consider appointment of a new council member at 8 p.m. today to replace Lawrence F. (Larry) Walsh, who resigned Sept. 12.

If no one is appointed to fill the vacancy, a special election will have to be called, according to Mrs. Alice Leonesio, city clerk.

Walsh, a councilman for less than six months, resigned because he had accepted a position that required his moving to Chico. He was the second member of the council to quit within four months.

Also on tonight's agenda is the opening of bids for improvement of Center Boulevard, Mrs. Leonesio reported.

CONNOLLY

My left eye points northwest and my right eye points southeast, I have a pain in my spine, and callouses on my derriere, but it was a wonderful, wonderful Sunday.

After five and a half hours of watching two television sets, with an assist from the radio, the San Francisco 49ers had pulled one out of the fire 14 to 10, the Oakland Raiders had beaten the clock, the officials, and the Dallas Texans 21 to 20, and the Pittsburgh Pirates had saved face for our National League by edging the Yanks 3 to 2.

Like thousands of 49er fans I had given up the game with the Detroit Lions. But when quarterback John Brodie took over from an ineffective Y. A. Tittle with just five minutes to go I must admit that I caught fire like a college sophomore.

If ever a football player showed his coach that he was deserving of a better break in play opportunities, it was Brodie. After looking like a first stringer all through the exhibition season, Stanford John was allowed to appear in ONE play in regular season contests until yesterday. With time running out in what looked like a certain loss, Brodie visibly sparked the weary and undermanned 49ers to two quick scores that brought the locals home a winner with NO seconds to go.

FOR 50 minutes, Coach Red Hickey waited for Tittle to snap out of an obviously bad day. His stubbornness almost blew the game. YAT just didn't have it, and his teammate on offense really had their flags down. Never close to a touchdown, the offense missed four straight goal attempts and played as if they didn't even care to try again.

And I can't give Hickey credit for a brilliant move when he sent in Brodie. I'm convinced that Hickey, too, had given up, and figured that he might as well give Brodie some experience. So John showed him that experience sometimes takes second place to the old college try.

FROM A spectator standpoint it was sheer delight to see a 49er quarterback making quick drop-backs, quick decisions, accurate throws and imaginative signal calling. From a technical viewpoint Brodie's execution was faulty and lucky. Many of the successful plays were born of desperation, with receivers and blockers completely out of planned position. But nothing succeeds like success, and Brodie wasn't about to let up.

Once again we have to observe that Tittle is either tipping off plays or has become so stereotyped in his play calling that the opposition can read his mind. And once again we comment that nothing confuses a professional defense so much as an unorthodox maneuver. And Brodie had 'em where YAT didn't.

The offensive line was crippled and has some excuse. But you have to give a big hand to the 49er defense that jelled after Detroit's first drive and kept giving the ball to the offense for another try. Clancy Osborne and Matt Hazeltine were stickouts. It is hard to think of these 49ers as champions, but you can never count out a team that tries and goes for the big win instead of a tie.

MEANWHILE, over in the American League, the Oakland Raiders played a second half that should earn them some real support from previously uninterested fans. Coach Eddie Erdelatz again showed the wizard touch to get the supreme effort from what was apparently an outclassed gang of misfits.

It may not produce the best football every time, but you still can't beat the old college try for excitement and crowd pleasing. And after all, isn't that what we pay for each week?

49ers Edge Lions On Sensational Rally

DETROIT (UPI)—Quarterback John Brodie came to the aid of starter Y. A. Tittle in the final minutes at Detroit yesterday—and sparked the San Francisco 49ers to an almost unbelievable 14-10 victory over the Lions.

The former Stanford ace took over with seven minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, with San Francisco trailing 10-0. He passed to Billy Wilson to get the 49ers on the scoreboard with just three minutes remaining—and then hit R. C. Owens with the clincher in the final second of play.

The Lions took the opening kickoff and marched 93 for their only touchdown of the day. The passing combination of quarterback Jim Ninowski and rookie end Gail Cogdill highlighted the drive, and Ken Webb carried the ball in from the one-yard line.

Then the defensive units settled down, smothering the offensive efforts until the fourth period. With seven minutes remaining, Jim Martin booted a 34-yard field goal which appeared to be all Detroit would need.

But, the Lions didn't figure on Brodie, who in just seven minutes completed eight of 13 passes for 105 yards and two touchdowns.

The first score climaxed an 82-yard drive. Wilson, an old pro who's also seen a lot of bench duty this season, faked his way behind defender Gary Lowe and snagged Brodie's pass.

The 49ers kicked off to the Lions, and the defensive team stormed onto the field to bottle up the Detroit offense. The Lions punted and Abe Woodson called for a fair catch to stop the clock with just 53 seconds remaining.

San Francisco picked up 15 yards on a penalty, and then Brodie—who was chased all over the field by the Lions—connected for a 10-yard screen pass to Hugh McElhenny. That stopped the clock for a measurement.

Then Brodie tossed 17 yards to Wilson on the sidelines, and the 49ers were on Detroit's 25 with 36 seconds remaining. Nine seconds were lost on an incomplete pass, but J. D. Smith took a seven-yard toss and romped out of bounds with nine seconds remaining.

As the clock ran out, Brodie eluded a mob of Detroit tacklers, ran almost to the line of scrimmage and fired to Owens in the end zone as the game ended. Tommy Davis converted, as a shocked crowd of 49,825 Lion fans sat in silence.

San Francisco had four chances for field goals — but none of them was successful. John Wittenborn missed from 46, 33 and 19 yards out, and a 21-yard effort by Davis was blocked.

The victory moved the 49ers into a four-way tie for first place in the Western Division of the National Football League. Their 2-1 record is matched by the Baltimore Colts, the Green Bay Packers, and the Chicago Bears.

San Francisco meets the Bears at Chicago next Sunday.

NFL ROUNDUP

Packers Jolt Champ Colts; Rams Beaten

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The rebuilt Green Bay Packers, molded into a title contender by Vince Lombardi, have struck the first blow against the kingpin Baltimore Colts in a determined bid to bring the smallest city in the National Football League its first championship since 1944.

The Packers parlayed a pair of pass interceptions by Hank Greeminger and two fumble recoveries into four touchdowns and shocked the two-time champion Colts 35-21 yesterday.

Lombardi, 47, former New York Giants' assistant who was one of the "seven blocks of granite" at Fordham University, became the Packers' coach and general manager after the dismal 1958 season in which Green Bay won only one game.

A year later in 1959 Lombardi's deft touch was evident as the Packers soared to a 7-5 record and tied for third place in the Western Division.

The Packers now are in a four-way scramble for the lead in the West with Baltimore, Chicago and San Francisco—all with 2-1 records.

The Bears' Ed Brown tossed three touchdown passes in a 34-27 victory over Los Angeles while San Francisco edged the Detroit Lions 14-10 on an 18-yard pass from John Brodie to R. C. Owens as the final gun sounded.

The New York Giants beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 19-17 on a last-minute 44-yard TD pitch from Charley Conerly to Frank Gifford and took over the top spot in the Eastern Division with a 3-0 record, a half-game in front of idle Cleveland.

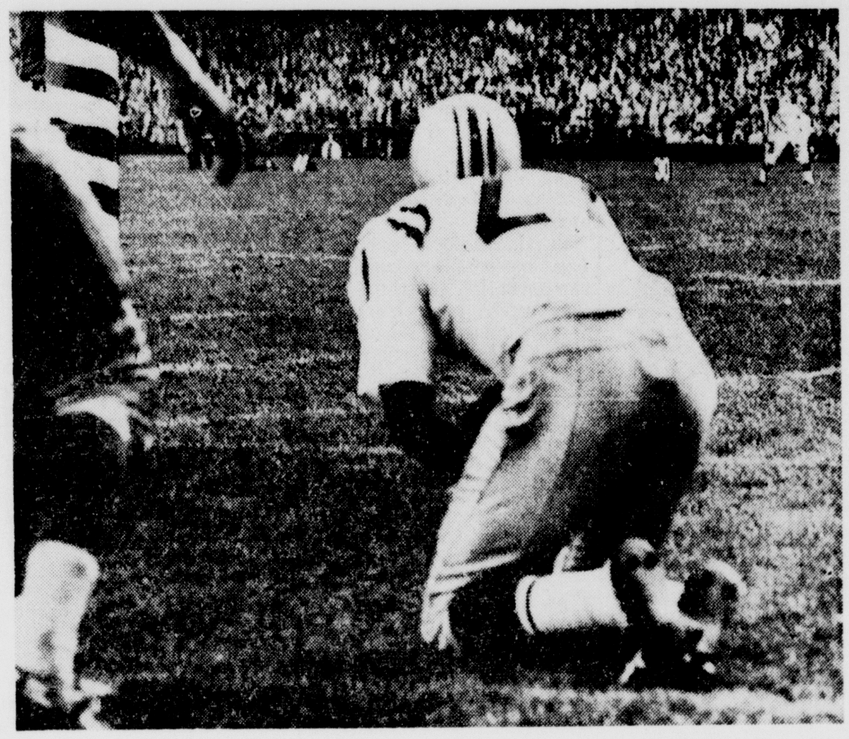
Philadelphia whipped St. Louis 31-27 and Washington won its first 26-14 over Dallas in other games.

Fullback Jim Taylor scored three Packer touchdowns on short dashes — the first two after Gremminger picked off Johnny Unitas passes, but a 12-yard Lamar McHan to Tom Moore pass in the fourth period was the clincher. Unitas had four throws intercepted and had to wait until only 1:10 remained to extend his TD-a-game string to 40 consecutive regular season tests with a 1-yard flip to Alex Hawkins.

Brown's third long TD toss, a 52-yarder to Angelo Coia put it out of reach when the Rams struck back in the second half after the Bears had built a 27-6 lead. Brown, who also tallied once, connected with John Morris for 45 and 66-yard scoring aerials. Rick Casares supplied the ground attack and bettered Bronco Nagurski's all-time Bear rushing record by ramming 78 yards for a 4,042-yard total.

Conerly came in for the Giants in the final session, pitched to Kyle Rote who lateraled to Bob Schnelker for a 34-yard gain and on the next play connected with Gifford for the winner. The Steelers had pushed in front 17-12 on a 30-yard Bobby Layne to Buddy Dial TD strike and Bert Rechichar's field goal.

Norm Van Brocklin, who earlier hit Pete Retzlaff with a pair of touchdown tosses, flipped an 11-yarder to Tommy McDonald in the fourth period for the Eagles' clincher against the Cards. St. Louis' John David Crow starred, throwing one scoring pass and romping 46 yards for another TD.



HE'S GOT IT!—R. C. Owens of 49ers goes to knees in end zone, clutching the precious football with the winning touchdown at Detroit yesterday. The play started with nine seconds remaining and ended at the final gun as John Brodie found his man with the payoff pitch. (AP Wirephoto)

'WE SHOWED 'EM'

Pirate Courage Features Series

NEW YORK (UPI)—Whether history finally writes that they won or lost the World Series, the Pittsburgh Pirates of 1960 now feel they have proved their courage.

Few teams in baseball annals were the targets of more rude jokes than these Corsairs when they absorbed back-to-back 16-3 and 10-0 drubbings from the New York Yankees. Words like "overrated" were being tossed around and gagsters inquired whether the Pirates would "show up for the rest of the series."

All that ended yesterday, however, when the Pirates outscrapped the Yankees in a tough 3-2 game that could have gone either way.

"We showed 'em we had guts enough to come off the floor and bounce right back," said Dick Groat, shortstop and team captain. "All of a sudden, we're alive again."

Pirate Manager Danny Murtaugh likes to maintain that his athletes "never are affected in today's game by the memory of what happened yesterday," and he insists that his club "was not down in the dumps" after those two nightmarish beatings.

WE SHOWED 'EM

But there could be no doubt in the Pirate clubhouse that these Bucs felt they had proved something. Their dressing room celebration after yesterday's triumph was not unrestrained glee, but a quiet, proud nodding of heads with the recurrent theme, "we showed 'em."

Murtaugh declared that he was not surprised at the strong comeback.

"We have been counted out lots of times before," said Murtaugh. "And we have always bounced back. One Pittsburgh writer said we were 'resilient.' I don't know how to spell it, but that's what we are."

Murtaugh also insisted there was no real dismay on the Pirate bench when yesterday's game opened with a Yankee single by Bob Cerv and a double by Tony Kubek. There was, he maintained, no feeling of "Oh, Oh, here we go again."

"That's the way Vern Law pitches," said Murtaugh. "Sometimes they get quite a few men on base against him, but they don't score many runs."

Nor was there any pressing of the panic button when Bill Virdon staved off disaster by his circus catch of Cerv's eighth-inning drive.

Murtaugh hustled out to the mound to gab with relief pitcher Elroy Face, but it wasn't, he disclosed, an emergency conclave.

"We just discussed our defense in the event of a double steal," Murtaugh said.

Jetstream Smith Romps As Raiders Jolt Dallas, 20-19

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Jetstream Smith touched off a 20-point explosion in the third period yesterday that gave the Oakland Raiders an upset, 20-19, victory over the Dallas Texans before 21,000 American Football League fans.

Smith took the opening kickoff of the second half and romped 98 yards for a touchdown, which tied the score at 7-7. In the next 10 minutes, the Raiders scored twice—and then fought off a determined drive by the Texans in the fourth period.

The defense scored the only touchdown in the first half. Back David Webster of the Texans intercepted a pass by Tom Flores in the second quarter and ran 80 yards for the score.

Smith's runback at the opening of the second half touched off the Raiders — who netted only two yards rushing in the first half. Rookie Alan Goldstein took an eight-yard pass from Tony Teresa for one touchdown and rambled 16 yards behind a wave of blockers for the other.

But, the Texans came to life with just six minutes remaining. Cotton Davidson hit end Chris Burford with a 30-yard pass, and Bo Dickenson plunged over from the one.

The Raiders, who had a conversion attempt blocked earlier got revenge by knocking down an attempt by Jack Spikes.

After the kickoff, the Texans jarred the ball out of Smith's hands and recovered it on Oakland's 33. Little Abner Haynes ripped off 16 yards in a drive to the six, from where Davidson lofted a scoring strike to Max Boydston.

Then, trailing by one point, the Texans gambled. Rather than kick for the tie, they elected to go for the college-type two-point conversion used in the AFL.

The victory left Oakland in a three-way tie for second place in the western division of the AFL. Denver leads the loop with three wins and one loss, while tied with 2-3 records are Oakland, Los Angeles and Dallas.

Lakers Beaten In L.A. Home Opener

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Boston Celtics last night spoiled the first local appearance of the Lakers as a Los Angeles club, edging them 106-101 in a National Basketball Assn. exhibition before 7,597.

The Celtics, led by Sam Jones and Bob Cousy, took command in the final two periods after being held to a 52-52 tie at the half. Cousy scored 17 points and Sam Jones got 13, the latter scoring all of his in the second half.

TITAN PLAYER DIES AFTER HOUSTON TILT

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Howard Glenn, a football player for the professional New York Titans, died in a hospital last night shortly after he played in an American Football League game.

One of two doctors who treated the 25-year-old Negro said Glenn may have suffered some sort of brain injury.

"A statement about the cause of death cannot possibly be made at this time," said Dr. Franklin M. Rivers.

"It appears to be a cerebral accident of some sort."

Rivers said Glenn, a guard from Vancouver, Wash., returned to the bench after a series of plays. He complained of feeling tired.

Glenn was sent to the dressing room. He showered, took some pills and drank a soft drink.

By the time the game was over Glenn had become belligerent and wanted to fight, Rivers said. He became hysterical and went into a stupor.

"He never came out of the stupor," the doctor said.

Cal's Snow Named Lineman Of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Tackle Jeff Snow of the University of California today was named the Big Five's "Lineman of the Week" for his work on both offense and defense against Washington State Saturday.

The announcement was made by Executive Director Tom Hamilton.

Snow, a 220-pound junior, was credited with making Cal's running attack work well on offense as the Bears and WSC battled to a 21-21 tie. Defense observers said he seemed to make more than half of the Cal tackles as he roamed up and down the defensive line.

Redwood Junior Giants Cop Warner League Title

Redwood's Junior Giants clinched the Marin County Pop Warner Football Conference championship for the second straight year Saturday by downing Mill Valley 25-7.

It was Redwood's 13th straight triumph dating back to last year and their fifth of the season.

Danny Salata scored a pair of touchdowns for the Giants on runs of five and six yards; his brother, Buzzy, scored on a 40-yard run and Tom Gootherts accounted for the other TD on a 45-yard punt return. Gootherts ran over the extra point.

Mill Valley's scoring came on a two-yard run by Scott Harrison, followed by Jack Atnip's run for the extra point.

In games yesterday San Anselmo downed St. Vincent's School 14-6 and Sebastopol outscored San Rafael 26-19.

San Anselmo's touchdowns were on runs of 40 yards by Dirk Smolak and 32 yards by Bob Hahn. Hahn also ran over one extra point and passed to Mike Miller for the other.

Vince Lessard's 67-yard run was St. Vincent's lone score.

Scoring touchdowns for San Rafael were Joe Cunningham, who tallied twice on passes of 40 and 35 yards from Dave Bowman, and Jim Boulden on a 15-yard run. Boulden also scored the extra point.

Mathews Clobbers Lane In TV Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Len Mathews, 21-year-old Philadelphian, half blinded southpaw Kenny Lane with his own blood Saturday night and got credit for a knockout when their nationally televised bout was stopped in the third round.

Lane, of Muskegon, Mich., was a 7-5 choice and for a round Mathews was baffled by the left-hander's style.

He solved the puzzle quickly, however, and had the 28-year-old Lane cut over both eyes and on the forehead by the end of the second. Before the referee stopped it in the third, blood was running into Lane's right eye.

Lane weighed 137¾, Mathews 136½.

Moss Outdrives Australia Champ In 230-Mile Race

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP)—England's Stirling Moss, looking fully recovered from serious injuries in a European racing accident four months ago, outdrove world champion Jack Brabham of Australia to win the 230-mile Formula Libre race here yesterday.

The triumph was a decisive one for the 30-year-old Englishman, making his first American appearance since his crack-up on the Belgium Grand Prix track in June. He also won the 1959 Watkins Glen Formula Libre.

CONNOLLY

My left eye points northwest and my right eye points southeast, I have a pain in my spine, and callouses on my derriere, but it was a wonderful, wonderful Sunday.

After five and a half hours of watching two television sets, with an assist from the radio, the San Francisco 49ers had pulled one out of the fire 14 to 10, the Oakland Raiders had beaten the clock, the officials, and the Dallas Texans 21 to 20, and the Pittsburgh Pirates had saved face for our National League by edging the Yanks 3 to 2.

Like thousands of 49er fans I had given up the game with the Detroit Lions. But when quarterback John Brodie took over from an ineffective Y. A. Tittle with just five minutes to go I must admit that I caught fire like a college sophomore.

If ever a football player showed his coach that he was deserving of a better break in play opportunities, it was Brodie. After looking like a first stringer all through the exhibition season, Stanford John was allowed to appear in ONE play in regular season contests until yesterday. With time running out in what looked like a certain loss, Brodie visibly sparked the weary and undermanned 49ers to two quick scores that brought the locals home a winner with NO seconds to go.

FOR 50 minutes, Coach Red Hickey waited for Tittle to snap out of an obviously bad day. His stubbornness almost blew the game. YAT just didn't have it, and his teammate on offense really had their flags down. Never close to a touchdown, the offense missed four straight goal attempts and played as if they didn't even care to try again.

And I can't give Hickey credit for a brilliant move when he sent in Brodie. I'm convinced that Hickey, too, had given up, and figured that he might as well give Brodie some experience. So John showed him that experience sometimes takes second place to the old college try.

FROM A spectator standpoint it was sheer delight to see a week?

49er quarterback making quick drop-backs, quick decisions, accurate throws and imaginative signal calling. From a technical viewpoint Brodie's execution was faulty and lucky. Many of the successful plays were born of desperation, with receivers and blockers completely out of planned position. But nothing succeeds like success, and Brodie wasn't about to let up.

Once again we have to observe that Tittle is either tipping off plays or has become so stereotyped in his play calling that the opposition can read his mind. And once again we comment that nothing confuses a professional defense so much as an unorthodox maneuver. And Brodie had 'em where YAT didn't.

The offensive line was crippled and has some excuse. But you have to give a big hand to the 49er defense that jelled after Detroit's first drive and kept giving the ball to the offense for another try. Clancy Osborne and Matt Hazeltine were stickouts. It is hard to think of these 49ers as champions, but you can never count out a team that tries and goes for the big win instead of a tie.

MEANWHILE, over in the American League, the Oakland Raiders played a second half that should earn them some real support from previously uninterested fans. Coach Eddie Erdelatz again showed the wizard touch to get the supreme effort from what was apparently an outclassed gang of misfits.

It may not produce the best football every time, but you still can't beat the old college try for excitement and crowd pleasing. And after all, isn't that what we pay for each

49ers Edge Lions On Sensational Rally

DETROIT (UPI)—Quarterback John Brodie came to the aid of starter Y. A. Tittle in the final minutes at Detroit yesterday —and sparked the San Francisco 49ers to an almost unbelievable 14-10 victory over the Lions.

The former Stanford ace took over with seven minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, with San Francisco trailing 10-0. He passed to Billy Wilson to get the 49ers on the scoreboard with just three minutes remaining—and then hit R. C. Owens with the clincher in the final second of play.

The Lions took the opening kickoff and marched 93 for their only touchdown of the day. The passing combination of quarterback Jim Ninowski and rookie end Gail Cogdill highlighted the drive, and Ken Webb carried the ball in from the one-yard line.

Then the defensive units settled down, smothering the offensive efforts until the fourth period. With seven minutes remaining, Jim Martin booted a 34-yard field goal which appeared to be all Detroit would need.

But, the Lions didn't figure on Brodie, who in just seven minutes completed eight of 13 passes for 105 yards and two touchdowns.

The first score climaxed an 82-yard drive. Wilson, an old pro who's also seen a lot of bench duty this season, faked his way behind defender Gary Lowe and snagged Brodie's pass.

The 49ers kicked off to the Lions, and the defensive team stormed onto the field to bottle up the Detroit offense. The Lions punted and Abe Woodson called for a fair catch to stop the clock with just 53 seconds remaining.

San Francisco picked up 15 yards on a penalty, and then Brodie—who was chased all over the field by the Lions—connected for a 10-yard screen pass to Hugh McElhenny. That stopped the clock for a measurement.

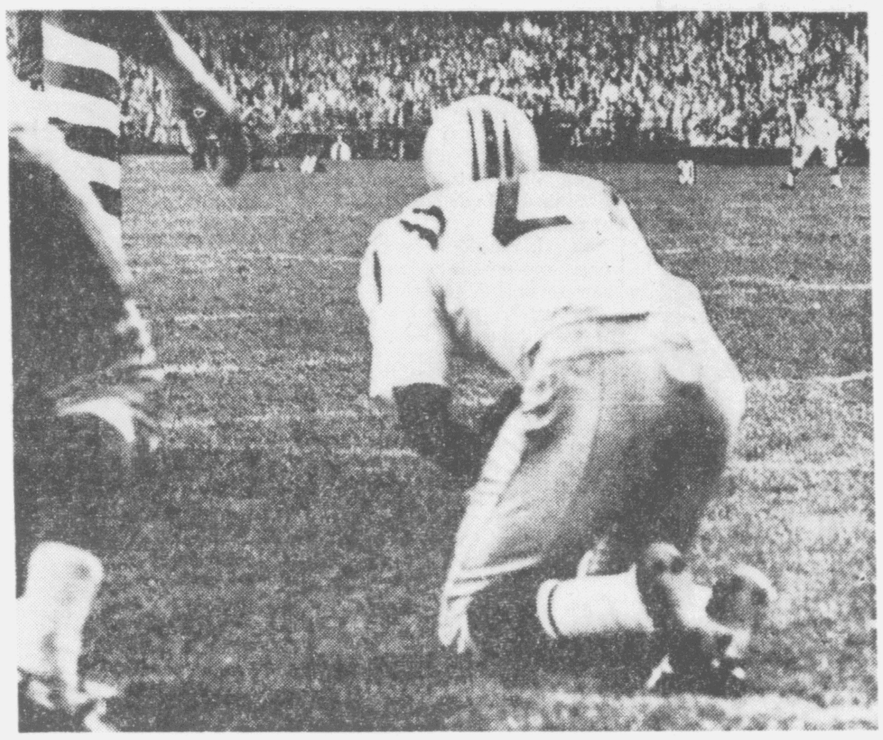
Then Brodie tossed 17 yards to Wilson on the sidelines, and the 49ers were on Detroit's 25 with 36 seconds remaining. Nine seconds were lost on an incomplete pass, but J. D. Smith took a seven-yard toss and romped out of bounds with nine seconds remaining.

As the clock ran out, Brodie eluded a mob of Detroit tacklers, ran almost to the line of scrimmage and fired to Owens in the end zone as the game ended. Tommy Davis converted, as a shocked crowd of 49,825 Lion fans sat in silence.

San Francisco had four chances for field goals — but none of them was successful. John Wittenborn missed from 46, 33 and 19 yards out, and a 21-yard effort by Davis was blocked.

The victory moved the 49ers into a four-way tie for first place in the Western Division of the National Football League. Their 2-1 record is matched by the Baltimore Colts, the Green Bay Packers, and the Chicago Bears.

San Francisco meets the Bears at Chicago next Sunday.



HE'S GOT IT!—R. C. Owens of 49ers goes to knees in end zone, clutching the precious football with the winning touchdown at Detroit yesterday. The play started with nine seconds remaining and ended at the final gun as John Brodie found his man with the payoff pitch. (AP Wirephoto)

NFL ROUNDUP

Packers Jolt Champ Colts; Rams Beaten

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The rebuilt Green Bay Packers, molded into a title contender by Vince Lombardi, have struck the first blow against the kingpin Baltimore Colts in a determined bid to bring the smallest city in the National Football League its first championship since 1944.

The Packers parlayed a pair of pass interceptions by Hank Greeminger and two fumble recoveries into four touchdowns and shocked the two-time champion Colts 35-21 yesterday.

Lombardi, 47, former New York Giants' assistant who was one of the "seven blocks of granite" at Fordham University, became the Packers' coach and general manager after the dismal 1958 season in which Green Bay won only one game.

A year later in 1959 Lombardi's deft touch was evident as the Packers soared to a 7-5 record and tied for third place in the Western Division.

The Packers now are in a four-way scramble for the lead in the West with Baltimore, Chicago and San Francisco—all with 2-1 records.

The Bears' Ed Brown tossed three touchdown passes in a 34-27 victory over Los Angeles while San Francisco edged the Detroit Lions 14-10 on an 18-yard pass from John Brodie to R. C. Owens as the final gun sounded.

The New York Giants beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 19-17 on a last-minute 44-yard TD pitch from Charley Conerly to Frank Gifford and took over the top spot in the Eastern Division with a 3-0 record, a half-game in front of idle Cleveland.

Philadelphia whipped St. Louis 31-27 and Washington won its first 26-14 over Dallas in other games.

Fullback Jim Taylor scored three Packer touchdowns on short dashes — the first two after Gremminger picked off Johnny Unitas passes, but a 12-yard Lamar McHan to Tom Moore pass in the fourth period was the clincher. Unitas had four throws intercepted and had to wait until only 1:10 remained to extend his TD-a-game string to 40 consecutive regular season tests with a 1-yard flip to Alex Hawkins.

Brown's third long TD toss, a 52-yarder to Angelo Coia put it out of reach when the Rams struck back in the second half after the Bears had built a 27-6 lead. Brown, who also tallied once, connected with John Morris for 45 and 66-yard scoring aerials. Rick Casares supplied the ground attack and bettered Bronco Nagurski's all-time Bear rushing record by ramming 78 yards for a 4,042-yard total.

Conerly came in for the Giants in the final session, pitched to Kyle Rote who lateraled to Bob Schnelker for a 34-yard gain and on the next play connected with Gifford for the winner. The Steelers had pushed in front 17-12 on a 30-yard Bobby Layne to Buddy Dial TD strike and Bert Rechichar's field goal.

Norm Van Brocklin, who earlier hit Pete Retzlaff with a pair of touchdown tosses, flipped an 11-yarder to Tommy McDonald in the fourth period for the Eagles' clincher against the Cards. St. Louis' John David Crow starred, throwing one scoring pass and romping 46 yards for another TD.

Jetstream Smith Romps As Raiders Jolt Dallas, 20-19

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Jetstream Smith touched off a 20-point explosion in the third period yesterday that gave the Oakland Raiders an upset, 20-19, victory over the Dallas Texans before 21,000 American Football League fans.

Smith took the opening kickoff of the second half and romped 98 yards for a touchdown, which tied the score at 7-7. In the next 10 minutes, the Raiders scored twice—and then fought off a determined drive by the Texans in the fourth period.

The defense scored the only touchdown in the first half. Back David Webster of the Texans intercepted a pass by Tom Flores in the second quarter and ran 80 yards for the score.

Smith's runback at the opening of the second half touched off the Raiders — who netted only two yards rushing in the first half. Rookie Alan Goldstein took an eight-yard pass from Tony Teresa for one touchdown and rambled 16 yards behind a wave of blockers for the other.

But, the Texans came to life with just six minutes remaining. Cotton Davidson hit end Chris Burford with a 30-yard pass, and Bo Dickenson plunged over from the one.

The Raiders, who had a conversion attempt blocked earlier got revenge by knocking down an attempt by Jack Spikes.

After the kickoff, the Texans jarred the ball out of Smith's hands and recovered it on Oakland's 33. Little Abner Haynes ripped off 16 yards in a drive to the six, from where Davidson lofted a scoring strike to Max Boydston.

Then, trailing by one point, the Texans gambled. Rather than kick for the tie, they elected to go for the college-type two-point conversion used in the AFL.

The victory left Oakland in a three-way tie for second place in the western division of the AFL. Denver leads the loop with three wins and one loss, while tied with 2-3 records are Oakland, Los Angeles and Dallas.

Lakers Beaten In L.A. Home Opener

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Boston Celtics last night spoiled the first local appearance of the Lakers as a Los Angeles club, edging them 106-101 in a National Basketball Assn. exhibition before 7,597.

The Celtics, led by Sam Jones and Bob Cousy, took command in the final two periods after being held to a 52-52 tie at the half. Cousy scored 17 points and Sam Jones got 13, the latter scoring all of his in the second half.

TITAN PLAYER DIES AFTER HOUSTON TILT

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Howard Glenn, a football player for the professional New York Titans, died in a hospital last night shortly after he played in an American Football League game.

One of two doctors who treated the 25-year-old Negro said Glenn may have suffered some sort of brain injury.

"A statement about the cause of death cannot possibly be made at this time," said Dr. Franklin M. Rivers.

"It appears to be a cerebral accident of some sort."

Rivers said Glenn, a guard from Vancouver, Wash., returned to the bench after a series of plays. He complained of feeling tired.

Glenn was sent to the dressing room. He showered, took some pills and drank a soft drink.

By the time the game was over Glenn had become belligerent and wanted to fight, Rivers said. He became hysterical and went into a stupor.

"He never came out of the stupor," the doctor said.

'WE SHOWED 'EM'

Pirate Courage Features Series

NEW YORK (UPI)—Whether history finally writes that they won or lost the World Series, the Pittsburgh Pirates of 1960 now feel they have proved their courage.

Few teams in baseball annals were the targets of more rude jokes than these Corsairs when they absorbed back-to-back 16-3 and 10-0 drubbings from the New York Yankees. Words like "overrated" were being tossed around and gagsters inquired whether the Pirates would "show up for the rest of the series."

All that ended yesterday, however, when the Pirates outscrapped the Yankees in a tough 3-2 game that could have gone either way.

"We showed 'em we had guts enough to come off the floor and bounce right back," said Dick Groat, shortstop and team captain. "All of a sudden, we're alive again."

Pirate Manager Danny Murtaugh likes to maintain that his athletes "never are affected in today's game by the memory of what happened yesterday," and he insists that his club "was not down in the dumps" after those two nightmarish beatings.

WE SHOWED 'EM

But there could be no doubt in the Pirate clubhouse that these Bucs felt they had proved something. Their dressing room celebration after yesterday's triumph was not unrestrained glee, but a quiet, proud nodding of heads with the recurrent theme, "we showed 'em."

Murtaugh declared that he was not surprised at the strong comeback.

"We have been counted out lots of times before," said Murtaugh. "And we have always bounced back. One Pittsburgh writer said we were 'resilient.' I don't know how to spell it, but that's what we are."

Murtaugh also insisted there was no real dismay on the Pirate bench when yesterday's game opened with a Yankee single by Bob Cerv and a double by Tony Kubek. There was, he maintained, no feeling of "Oh, Oh, here we go again."

"That's the way Vern Law pitches," said Murtaugh. "Sometimes they get quite a few men on base against him, but they don't score many runs."

Nor was there any pressing of the panic button when Bill Virdon staved off disaster by his circus catch of Cerv's eighth-inning drive.

Murtaugh hustled out to the mound to gab with relief pitcher Elroy Face, but it wasn't, he disclosed, an emergency conclave.

"We just discussed our defense in the event of a double steal," Murtaugh said.

The Pirates are holding their heads high because, win or lose, nobody can now say they "choked up."

Novato Rolls To Fourth Straight

Novato High School's undefeated football machine shifted into high gear Saturday night by steamrolling to a 38-0 victory over Ft. Bragg at Petaluma.

That set up the Hornets for their opening Marin Athletic League battle this Friday night with another strong contender — the defending champion Redwood Giants. The crucial league game will be played at San Rafael High School's field.

In notching their fourth win, Coach Marlin Olsen's title-hungry Hornets used all sorts of methods in scoring—an 86-yard kickoff return by John Picchi and 45-yard return of an intercepted pass by Bob Sparrow besides the conventional rushing plays.

And the sparkling Novato defense played a big role in the runaway victory. The Hornets stole five intercepted passes—two by Sparrow and one each by Don Scribner, Bill Azevedo and Bob Remley—and the defensive line completely bottled up the Ft. Bragg single wing attack. The losers were held to 95 yards—35 passing and 60 rushing—and half of their ground total was gained in the first period while Novato was adjusting its defenses.

In the same period Bill Azevedo raced 35 yards to give the Hornets a two-touchdown bulge at halftime.

Picchi startled the crowd at the opening of the second half by racing the kickoff back 86 yards and from there the Novatans breezed.

Other second half touchdowns were Sparrow's intercepted pass, and runs of one yard by Craig Bond and six yards by Dennis McCormick.

John Cook kicked the two extra points.

Cook, Ron Grayson and Jim Sewell were cited by Coach Olsen for their outstanding line play.

Outstanding backs were Picchi, Azevedo and Sparrow. The latter completed 8 of 12 passes for 92 yards as Novato rolled up 295 yards. Five of Sparrow's passes were caught by Grayson.

Friday's game with Redwood will start at 8 p.m.

By PAUL MILLER

It was sophomore night and fumble time for the Tamalpais High Indians Saturday at Kentfield as they battered the mediocre defenses of Ukiah High for a 24-12 victory.

Spectators in a nearly full stadium watched a united Tam club set up play after play that launched halfback Pat (Mercury) Morgan or sophomore backs Rich Hamilton and Warren Domino for first downs or TDs. Coach James Hanretty's football team would not settle for just yardage.

The rocket-like battery did not begin a quarter or so after the game got underway, but rather nine plays after fans sat down following the opening kickoff, to enjoy the contest on a crisp, clear autumn evening. From that ninth snap Warren Domino took a handoff from spinning quarterback "Tex" Hamilton and drove around Tam's own left end to gallop 16 yards for the first touchdown of the evening.

A TD might even have come sooner had not the Indians begun their first of eight costly fumbles—all of them being inside the 40-yard marker of enemy territory.

The fast running Tam club fumbled near Ukiah's 20-yard line on the sixth play of the game and the northern woodsmen recovered. But Tam regained composure when Tom Yarborough intercepted a Ukiah pass two plays later at midfield and ran the ball back to Ukiah's 40. From that position eight and 14 yard runs by Morgan and Rich Hamilton respectively, set up Domino's score.

MORE FUMBLES

The Indians could possibly have scored twice in that first period had not the ball been recovered by the Wildcats again after it slipped from Tam on a pitch out play on Ukiah's 22. Two more Tam fumbles kept the Indians from scoring from Ukiah's 22 again and later on 38 yardline before the later portion of the second period.

About a minute and a half before the mid-game stretch, substitute quarterback Bob Melbern let go with a 40-yard connector to Norm Kreuter, who scuffed end zone lime to make six more digits and a halftime score of 12-0, Injuns.

A brilliantly executed play that set Tam up for the scoring pass from the 40 was a right end sweep by quarterback Hamilton with "Mercury" acting the part of a down field blocker, but actually pacing himself to the rear and outside of Hamilton, waiting for the ball carrying quarterback to be struck by a tackler. Hamilton was hit after picking up seven yards—but before a Ukiah line backer brought Hamilton down, the quarterback automatically pitched the ball back a yard to where Morgan was scheduled to be and was. Morgan carried the leather through a frustrated Ukiah club for 21 more yards.

UKIAH MOVES

Although Ukiah's defensive ends and outside linebackers were poor in the first half and worse in the second, Ukiah rather than repair defenses began an offensive move via air and was able to set up two TDs in the final period. But not until after Tam gained six more points in the last minute of the third period.

On that play, the Indians taking advantage of a recovered Wildcat fumble on Ukiah's 31 (the woodsmen fumbled, too—four times), moved down to the 17 in three plays on quick opening handoffs to Morgan through the center of the line. At the 17 on a second down, quarterback Melbern, a senior, presented sophomore halfback Don Johnston the leather on a spinner. Johnston roared the 17 yards on a left tackle slant for six more points.

Tam's fourth and final period TD was made by fullback Ron Foster in a four-yard charge over his own right guard.

Indian coach Hanretty was pleased with his team's performance as a whole, "but I was not too pleased with the unusual amount of fumbles," he said. "It's a nice victory with which to move into league play," he added.

Trouble Looms Ahead For Cal Footballers

The Bears open their Big Five season Saturday against Southern California in the Coliseum. The Trojans got on the winning side Friday night, defeating a fast Georgia team 10-3 and are only 1-3.

But Coach Marv Levy's Bears were forced to settle for a 21-21 tie with Washington State and still look for their first victory.

Heavier lines have made the difference in losses to Tulane, Notre Dame and Army. The Cal men can figure to be outweighed about 20 pounds a man Saturday.

Levy promises more passing against the Trojans. His quarterback Randy Gold completed 8 of 13 for 132 yards and a touchdown against WSU, and the runners piled up 263 yards.

But Washington State ran for 183 yards and passed for 207, evidence that the California line needs shoring. Jeff Snow, a 220-pound tackle, however was named Big Five "Lineman of the Week" for his effort.

The Bears can be grateful that they're finished with WSU's Keith Lincoln.

Lincoln, a 6-foot-2 throwback to iron man days, scored two touchdowns, ran over the 2-point conversion that cinched the tie, carried 22 times for 128 yards, passed five times for 40 yards, averaged 40.5 yards on two kicks and kicked off several times.

"Lincoln is just great," Levy commented.

The Bears for the first time this year scored in the second half. In fact, they scored twice, a one-yard plunge by George Pioerovich in the third period and a 45-yard run by Steve Bates in the fourth.

Bates' fine run and Jim Ferguson's third conversion made it 21-13 and it looked like Levy finally won one.

But Washington State quarterback Mel Melin took to the air and hit end Lee Schroeder twice, once with a 47 yarder and then with a 17-yard touchdown heave. The score came with 1:38 left in the game. Lincoln, making the big play as usual, ran in the conversion.

Stanford To Be Favored

STANFORD (AP) — For once, and perhaps the only time this season, the Stanford Indians will be favored to win a football game on Saturday when they host the Spartans of San Jose State.

Few who recall the 54-38 Stanford victory of a year ago expect anything but a battle of offenses this time although the Indians' defense showed improvement as they lost to Washington 29-10 last Saturday for their fourth setback of 1960.

That Stanford - Washington score doesn't tell the true story of the game. It might have been much different except for the third play of the fourth quarter.

The Indians had dominated play in the third period and scored to put the count at 17-10. They'd pushed Washington back to its 24. Quarterback Bob Schloredt went back into punt formation and boomed a high kick. Stanford safetyman Gary Craig failed to call for a fair catch. The ball and three Washington tacklers arrived nearly simultaneously, Craig fumbled and Dick Dunn recovered for the Huskies at the 40. Schloredt hit Pat Claridge with a pass at the 10 and the quarterback ran that 10 on a keeper for the touchdown on the next play.

"If Craig has called for a fair catch it could have changed the game," Coach Jack Curtice of the Indians said.

Washington had scored 10 points before Stanford controlled the ball. George Fleming kicked a 25-yard field goal and after Skip Face fumbled the kickoff, Schloredt hit Lee Folkins with a 33-yard scoring pass and Fleming converted.

Marin Wildcats Rip Oakland '11' For First Grid Victory

By GREGG HOBBS

At 4 p.m. last Saturday a befuddled St. Elizabeth's football team was trying to figure "Wha'hoppen?" For the Marin Catholic High Wildcats had just finished slashing their way to their first victory of the season—a 28-6 rout of the Oakland team at Kentfield.

In their two previous contests the Wildcats lost to Analy 21-6 and tied San Rafael 12-12.

The Wildcats sunk their claws into the Mustangs in the first period and ripped the visitors apart the rest of the way.

With junior John Jones at quarterback, substituting for the injured Mike Quinn, and brilliant running of Gary Ragghianti and Frank Ubhause, Marin scored seven points in each quarter while the Mustangs didn't score until the final period against the Wildcat second string.

In the opening quarter, after stalling a St. Elizabeth's drive on Marin's 34-yard line, the Wildcats launched their first scoring drive. Ubhaus ripped off a 35-yard run, Ragghianti added a pair of seven-yard gains, Ubhaus gained 15 more yards and Ragghianti capped the drive by diving over the goal. He also ran over the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

More exciting long runs highlighted Marin's second drive. This time Ragghianti rambled 50 yards to the Mustang 22 and two plays later Jones threw a 15-yard TD pass to Jerry Crowe. Jones' pass to Rich Ongaro made the extra point and 14-0 lead.

Early in the third quarter Ongaro intercepted an Oakland pass and six plays later Crowe passed to Ongaro for an eight-yard touchdown play. Crowe then passed to Bill Grady for the point after touchdown, 21-0.

After the visitors scored on a 70-yard pass play from Juan Sanchez to Jim Snider, Marin turned right around and chalked up another tally. Ubhaus, who picked up 160 rushing yards on the day, ran wild in the final drive. He carried the ball on five successive plays, including 43-yard run to the St. Elizabeth two and then the final two-yard TD plunge.

Marin Coach Harry Moore described it as "a team victory. Tony Giusti was great on defence," he said, "and Jones, Ragghiant and Ubhaus sparkled on offense. But the victory belonged to the whole team. Everyone contributed his part."

On the gloomy side, Ragghianti suffered a knee injury and George Nunes hurt his leg. They join Quinn on the injured list and it is doubtful if any of them will be able to play this week against Drake.

Hub Lad, 10, Wins Water Ski Trophy

He picked it up Saturday by winning third place in the Clear Lake Oaks Lions Club's water-skiing carnival at Clear Lake.

COAST GRID

Watch Out Washington!

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

As the 1960 football season began, the byword on the Pacific Coast went, "Watch Washington!"

Now it might well be, "Watch out Washington!"

Washington beat Stanford 29-10 last Saturday in a Big Five contest, but as Huskie Coach Jim Owens observed, "Both teams were ragged."

The Uclans had an open date.

West Coast teams play among themselves this week with the schedule listing California at Southern California, Oregon State at Idaho, Washington State at Oregon, and San Jose State at Stanford with College of the Pacific idle.

Following the example of USC's 10-3 triumph over Georgia on Friday night, Oregon State walloped Indiana 20-6 and COP slammed Villanova 20-6.

In Western neighborhood tiffs, Washington State rallied to tie California 21-21 and Oregon swamped San Jose State 33-0. Utah State whipped Idaho 33-6.

Novato Rolls To Fourth Straight

Novato High School's undefeated football machine shifted into high gear Saturday night by steamrolling to a 38-0 victory over Ft. Bragg at Petaluma.

That set up the Hornets for their opening Marin Athletic League battle this Friday night with another strong contender — the defending champion Redwood Giants. The crucial league game will be played at San Rafael High School's field.

In notching their fourth win, Coach Marlin Olsen's title-hungry Hornets used all sorts of methods in scoring—an 86-yard kickoff return by John Picchi and 45-yard return of an intercepted pass by Bob Sparrow besides the conventional rushing plays.

And the sparkling Novato defense played a big role in the runaway victory. The Hornets stole five intercepted passes—two by Sparrow and one each by Don Scribner, Bill Azevedo and Bob Remley—and the defensive line completely bottled up the Ft. Bragg single wing attack. The losers were held to 95 yards—35 passing and 60 rushing—and half of their ground total was gained in the first period while Novato was adjusting its defenses.

In the same period Bill Azevedo raced 35 yards to give the Hornets a two-touchdown bulge at halftime.

Picchi startled the crowd at the opening of the second half by racing the kickoff back 86 yards and from there the Novatans breezed.

Other second half touchdowns were Sparrow's intercepted pass, and runs of one yard by Craig Bond and six yards by Dennis McCormick.

John Cook kicked the two extra points.

Outstanding backs were Picchi, Azevedo and Sparrow. The latter completed 8 of 12 passes for 92 yards as Novato rolled up 295 yards. Five of Sparrow's passes were caught by Grayson.

Friday's game with Redwood will start at 8 p.m.

Prof. Herrell DeGraff of Cornell says that on a worldwide basis the typical family puts forth about 60 per cent of its productive effort for securing food. In the United States, however, a typical family uses only 25 per cent of its disposable income for food.

Stanford To Be Favored

STANFORD (AP) — For once, and perhaps the only time this season, the Stanford Indians will be favored to win a football game on Saturday when they host the Spartans of San Jose State.

Few who recall the 54-38 Stanford victory of a year ago expect anything but a battle of offenses this time although the Indians' defense showed improvement as they lost to Washington 29-10 last Saturday for their fourth setback of 1960.

That Stanford - Washington score doesn't tell the true story of the game. It might have been much different except for the third play of the fourth quarter.

The Indians had dominated play in the third period and scored to put the count at 17-10. They'd pushed Washington back to its 24. Quarterback Bob Schloredt went back into punt formation and boomed a high kick. Stanford safetyman Gary Craig failed to call for a fair catch. The ball and three Washington tacklers arrived nearly simultaneously, Craig fumbled and Dick Dunn recovered for the Huskies at the 40. Schlordt hit Pat Claridge with a pass at the 10 and the quarterback ran that 10 on a keeper for the touchdown on the next play.

"If Craig has called for a fair catch it could have changed the game," Coach Jack Curtice of the Indians said.

Washington had scored 10 points before Stanford controlled the ball. George Fleming kicked a 25-yard field goal and after Skip Face fumbled the kickoff, Schloredt hit Lee Folkins with a 33-yard scoring pass and Fleming converted.

Watch Out Washington!

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

As the 1960 football season began, the byword on the Pacific Coast went, "Watch Washington!"

Now it might well be, "Watch out Washington!"

Washington beat Stanford 29-10 last Saturday in a Big Five contest, but as Huskie Coach Jim Owens observed, "Both teams were ragged."

The Uclans had an open date.

West Coast teams play among themselves this week with the schedule listing California at Southern California, Oregon State at Idaho, Washington State at Oregon, and San Jose State at Stanford with College of the Pacific idle.

Following the example of USC's 10-3 triumph over Georgia on Friday night, Oregon State walloped Indiana 20-6 and COP slammed Villanova 20-6.

In Western neighborhood tiffs, Washington State rallied to tie California 21-21 and Oregon swamped San Jose State 33-0. Utah State whipped Idaho 33-6.

Hub Lad, 10, Wins Water Ski Trophy

He picked it up Saturday by winning third place in the Clear Lake Oaks Lions Club's water-skiing carnival at Clear Lake.

Comeback Attempt By Lumumba Foiled

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — Col. Joseph Mobutu, the Congo's strong man, appeared today to have nipped in the bud the latest move by flamboyant Patrice Lumumba to rally public support.

After the deposed premier's trip through Leopoldville's native quarter last night, Mobutu today ordered Lumumba's residence ringed with 200 Congolese soldiers.

There was a brief scuffle as soldiers drove back several dozen Lumumba supporters with rifle butts. One shot was fired into the air. Ten of the pro-Lumumba crowd were taken into custody. One or two were reported slightly injured by the rough and determined action of the soldiers.

As soon as Mobutu left, Lumumba walked out on his balcony and shouted: "I am not a prisoner. I am still master. The people are still with me."

There were no further incidents. A little later Mobutu ordered the troop strength around Lumumba's home cut to 50 men.

Soldiers told reporters that they had been ordered to the residence to "prevent Lumumba from making politics."

They said they had no orders to arrest Lumumba but that they were there to prevent his political friends and parliament members from getting into the house.

Lumumba, who was fired as government head early last month, made an unannounced sortie through the bars of Leopoldville's sprawling native quarter last night. He confidently told cheering groups of Africans, "Lumumba has come back to power."

After Lumumba's pub crawl, Mobutu deployed strong troop detachments in key parts of the city. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers stood guard in parts of the European and African quarters.

"Emeri! (savior) crowds of Africans screamed at the 34-year-old ex-premier as he drove about the city in a limousine with an escort of the Ghana and Moroccan soldiers of the United Nations force who guard his villa

'TRAFFIC JAM' SEEN MAJOR U.S. PROBLEM

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A transportation authority said today "America's traffic jam has become a national problem" and warned that further decreases in mass transit patronage could easily result in a 25 per cent increase in automobile traffic in major cities.

Wilber E. Smith of Washington, D. C., told delegates to the 79th annual meeting of the American Transit Assn. that there is a "real awakening in Washington regarding urban problems and urban transportation leads the list for federal scrutiny."

Smith said about 71 million cars — about two and one-half times that number on the road at the close of World War II — are now registered in the United States.

W. E. P. Duncan of Toronto, president of the association, told the opening session that if the United States and other nations can solve the problems of space travel they ought to be able to solve the problem of travel on the surface of the earth.

Demonstrators Demand Korea Cabinet Resign

SEOUL, South Korea (UPI)— Crying mothers and crippled veterans of the April revolution demonstrated in downtown Seoul today shouting demands for the resignation of Premier John M. Chang and his cabinet.

Policemen were issued weapons for the first time since the government or former President Syngman Rhee fell.

Reports from Masan, cradle of the April revolution, and Taegu told of other demonstrations.

The demonstrators charged that Chang's government and the national assembly had failed to accomplish the tasks of the April uprising. They protested a ruling of the Seoul district court which last Saturday ignored prosecution demands for death sentences for nine of 48 former Rhee officials.

Former Seoul Police Chief Yoo Choong Yul was condemned to death, but Judge Chang Joon Taek ignored demands for death penalities for the other defendants.

Employment, Unemployment Both Decline In September

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both employment and unemployment declined in September in an improving national job situation attributed mainly to seasonal factors.

Both employment and unemployment were affected by the their return of young workers to their classrooms from temporary summer jobs.

Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor for manpower problems, said the latest job figures show employment is continuing at a relatively high level.

But he said unemployment also is remaining at a high points "that is far from satisfactory by any standard."

The Labor Department reported that employment dropped from 68,282,000 in August to 67,767,000 in September. The 515,000 reduction still left the September job total at a record for the month.

Normally a post-summer drop of about 750,000 is expected in the employment count.

The department said unemployment dropped from 3,788,000 in August to 3,388,000 in September, a reduction of 400,000. Normally unemployment is expected to decline by 500,000 in September.

Ship Crewman Hurt In Motorcycle Mishap

A 23-year-old fireman off the Standard Oil tanker W. H. Berg in San Francisco suffered cuts and bruises of legs, hands and a broken right heel when he skidded while riding a motorcycle on San Pedro Road near San Rafael yesterday.

Charles Owen Smith, 23, westbound just beyond Main Drive, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital and released to his ship after the mishap at 10:50 a.m.

10-Acre Fire Perils Homes

A flaming match from the cigarette of a 14-year-old boy started a grass fire in San Rafael yesterday which burned almost 10 acres and threatened nearby homes.

Flames up to 10 feet high and smoke which could be seen for two miles blossomed from grass in an area surrounded by Robert Dollar Drive, Curtis Avenue and Nye Street.

The fire started about 4:30 p.m. Firemen from San Rafael and the Marin County Fire Department quickly beat down flames and controlled the blaze which charred fences in the back of homes on Curtis, west of Nye Street. Householders used garden hoses to help fight the fire and wet down houses.

San Rafael police reported that two 14-year-old youths were on the hill where the fire started. One, smoking a cigarette, threw down the match and later saw flames begin to build up on the dry, grassy hillside, he told police.

Carolyn Marie Hoefer Bride Of John Pelkan In Saturday Rites

Magnolia blossoms contrasting with the dark green of their leaves decorated St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon Saturday when John Ring Pelkan of San Jose claimed Carolyn Marie Hoefer of Belvedere as his bride.

The couple was married in a single ring ceremony at 3 p.m. with Rev. John J. Murray officiating.

Preceding her were her sister, Susan, who was maid of honor, Mrs. Charles Upton of Mill Valley, matron of honor, Anne Kneedler of Belvedere and three of her Delta Gamma Sorority sisters, Phyllis O'Connell of Sacramento, Katharine Solari of San Francisco and Wendy Graupner formerly of Ross and now of San Francisco. All wore gowns of celadon green satin and carried white baby roses. Also in the wedding procession were Carolyn's other sister, Mary, and her cousin, Martha Newbrand, flower girls. They wore very bouffant short white dress of organza and carried baskets of miniature white roses matching their rose coronets.

Best man for his brother was Dr. Karl F. Pelkan, Jr. of Los Angeles and the ushers were the bride's brother John, William Cole of Ross; Hamilton Kelly of Los Angeles, John Wilson of San Jose and Peter Brown of Walnut Grove.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hoefer chose pink peau de soie with orchids. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Karl F. Pelkan, of San Jose, wore green peau de soie with orchids.

Carolyn's maternal grandparents are the Everett E. Fosters of Santa Rosa. Mr. Foster is well known in musical circles and sang at his granddaughter's wedding. Her paternal grandparents are the John Hoefers of San Francisco. In addition to her brother and sisters who were in the wedding party she has another brother Bill who is 5 years old.

She is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and has been attending the University of California where she was a Delta Gamma and recently chosen "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

John is the son if Dr. and Mrs. Karl F. Pelkan of San Jose. He is a graduate of Bellarmine and the University of California where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta. At present he is studying at the graduate school of business at University of Santa Clara. He plans to take his new bride to Europe next spring where he will continue his studies and eventually enter the field of international business.

Immediately following the wedding a reception for 500 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents on the Belvedere Lagoon. The young couple received their guests standing under a bower of white geraniums. The green and white magnolia church decorations were repeated in the home. Topiary trees of white daisies, and white chrysanthemums completed the garden decorations. Miss Janet Hayes of Mill Valley was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Pelkan changed to a tailored wool suit of charcoal gray with a white blouse and black accessories. She and her new husband made a surprise exit by sailing off across the Lagoon in a gaily decorated sailboat.

Following a honeymoon in Carmel they will return to Santa Clara where they will live.

The wedding culminates a romantic courtship, for John proposed marriage by long distance telephone from Europe where he was traveling with his family.

Focus Luncheon To Honor Marin Delta Zeta Alumnae

When the theme poster of "Stop! Look! And Listen—It's a Fashionable Fall" is unfurled at the 12:30 o'clock Fashion Focus luncheon at Rickey's tomorrow, it will herald the Marin County alumnae chapter of Delta Zeta sorority's first participation in the current popular luncheon series.

Nine of the members of the alumnae chapter's roster of 70 women in Marin County will trod the runway to display the first Fall showing of fashions from a San Rafael store.

The Delta Zeta alumnae are sponsoring the luncheon and fashion show for the benefit of the Hearing Society of Marin, a non-profit organization established locally in 1956 to assist the hard-of-hearing adult and child in the community. Delta Zeta alumnae work closely with the society throughout the year, having served as volunteers in the Marindale School deaf children's class and participating in the society's local National Hearing Month program in May annually. Delta Zetas also serve on the society's board of directors and this year one of their members, Miss Slavka Cibilich of Corte Madera, is the society's president.

Luncheon chairman is Mrs. James A. Smith of Terra Linda, former Delta Zeta chapter president. Models will be Mesdames Frank Brown, Greenbrae; Robert Pritchard, Terra Linda; George Mallory, San Rafael; Robert McKenzie, Novato; Byron Jones, Tiburon; Harold Chamberlain, Lucas Valley; Thomas Coates, Corte Madera; Robert Oates, San Anselmo; C. P. Seymour, Ross.

Special events chairman is chapter president Mrs. Robert Tanem of San Rafael, assisted by Mrs. James Hettrick, Marinwood; Mrs. Harold Tracy, Petaluma; Mrs. Headley Brown, Terra Linda; Mrs. Robert Bry, San Anselmo; Mrs. Robert Munter, San Rafael; Mrs. Guy Gale of Sleepy Hollow.

The Hearing Society of Marin sponsors the lip-reading class taught at the College of Marin and this year's main project is to continue studies of the community to ascertain the best method of assistance to hard-of-hearing children and adults. The society sponsors the newly-established Parents of Hard-of-Hearing Children group also.

Local alumnae also participate in the sorority's national philanthropy, which since 1944 has been aid to the hard-of-hearing. The chapter assisted in the furnishing of the Edward Miner Gallaudet Library reading room at Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C.

Carolyn Marie Hoefer Bride Of John Pelkan In Saturday Rites

Magnolia blossoms contrasting with the dark green of their leaves decorated St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon Saturday when John Ring Pelkan of San Jose claimed Carolyn Marie Hoefer of Belvedere as his bride.

The couple was married in a single ring ceremony at 3 p.m. with Rev. John J. Murray officiating.

Preceding her were her sister, Susan, who was maid of honor, Mrs. Charles Upton of Mill Valley, matron of honor, Anne Kneedler of Belvedere and three of her Delta Gamma Sorority sisters, Phyllis O'Connell of Sacramento, Katharine Solari of San Francisco and Wendy Graupner formerly of Ross and now of San Francisco. All wore gowns of celadon green satin and carried white baby roses. Also in the wedding procession were Carolyn's other sister, Mary, and her cousin, Martha Newbrand, flower girls. They wore very bouffant short white dress of organza and carried baskets of miniature white roses matching their rose coronets.

Best man for his brother was Dr. Karl F. Pelkan, Jr. of Los Angeles and the ushers were the bride's brother John, William Cole of Ross; Hamilton Kelly of Los Angeles, John Wilson of San Jose and Peter Brown of Walnut Grove.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hoefer chose pink peau de soie with orchids. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Karl F. Pelkan, of San Jose, wore green peau de soie with orchids.

Carolyn's maternal grandparents are the Everett E. Fosters of Santa Rosa. Mr. Foster is well known in musical circles and sang at his granddaughter's wedding. Her paternal grandparents are the John Hoefers of San Francisco. In addition to her brother and sisters who were in the wedding party she has another brother Bill who is 5 years old.

She is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and has been attending the University of California where she was a Delta Gamma and recently chosen "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

John is the son if Dr. and Mrs. Karl F. Pelkan of San Jose. He is a graduate of Bellarmine and the University of California where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta. At present he is studying at the graduate school of business at University of Santa Clara. He plans to take his new bride to Europe next spring where he will continue his studies and eventually enter the field of international business.

Immediately following the wedding a reception for 500 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents on the Belvedere Lagoon. The young couple received their guests standing under a bower of white geraniums. The green and white magnolia church decorations were repeated in the home. Topiary trees of white daisies, and white chrysanthemums completed the garden decorations. Miss Janet Hayes of Mill Valley was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Pelkan changed to a tailored wool suit of charcoal gray with a white blouse and black accessories. She and her new husband made a surprise exit by sailing off across the Lagoon in a gaily decorated sailboat.

Following a honeymoon in Carmel they will return to Santa Clara where they will live.

Seminary Professor Is Triple C Speaker

A talk on "The coming of the first white women to the Pacific Coast" was the program for Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Mill Valley Community Church Club.

Dr. Drury, who is the California professor of church history at San Francisco Theological Seminary, at San Anselmo based his talk on a vast amount of research on the coming of the first Protestant missionaries into the northwest part of the United States about 1846. It resulted in his writing of five books that were published.

He plans two more on the part specifically played by the first women missionaries, and he outlined their histories in his talk, speaking principally of Mrs. Henry Harmon Spaulding, Mrs. Marcus Whitman and Mrs. Elkanah Walker.

From their original letters and material recorded in diaries — some meant to be read, and others intended for their eyes alone, Dr. Drury painted a vivid picture of these courageous women venturing into unknown country thought to contain mountains higher than the Himalayas and subsisting for months on nothing but buffalo meat. It was reasoned that wherever a wagon could go a woman could go.

It was at the request of the Nez Perce Indians themselves, he said, that the first missionaries came to Oregon. Some of their experiences were made especially real to Dr. Drury and his wife when they were able to follow some of the missionaries' exact itineraries.

Greeting guests at the door were hospitality chairman Mrs. S. C. Aitchison, Mrs. Mills Calahan and Mrs. Joseph Goulding, and assisting Mrs. Baker were Mesdames Donald Healy, Leslie Jonas and Thomas Zilka.

'Simon Says' Even Party Shoes Are Good And Sturdy

Party clothes should be bright clothes, as gay as the occasion itself, and party-bound youngsters like their dress-up shoes to be just as special.

This fall, tapered slimness gives new fashion appeal to styles for both boys and girls, reports the National Shoe Institute.

Many party pumps have the diminutive Queen Anne or squash heels that children love for their grown-up airs. These are curved so that they have the broad base required for firm construction and are found in dress-up nylon, velvet, pastel calf or kid.

The decorations on girls' footwear, following the dictates of fashion this fall, are newly integrated into the shape of the shoe. Cut-outs, overlays, and off-side flaps are detailings found on both casual and dress styles. Rhinestones and gold collars, lacing and edging are delightful new party trimmings.

A new trend for dress-up will be velvet and leather shoes in bright or pastel shades to match a little girl's prettiest dress. Today, even the most exciting game of "Simon Says" or "Giant Steps" won't mar the lightest shades of shoes in the new "easy care" nylon velvets and scotchgarded leathers.

Colored patent leather in vibrant reds, bronzes, golds and greens that capture the colors of autumn under a smooth metallic finish is another exciting innovation. All party shoes are tapered to ballet slimness and lightness, fashioned of supple leathers and designed to give firm support

Boys' dress shoes for fall and winter include both oxfords and slipon styles in smooth or grained leathers. Many have been dressed up with crests, buckles and other "hardware."

Mosk Better Review Opinion On Freedom Of Information

One of the most peculiar opinions we've seen in many years was handed down last week by the office of Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk. It's net effect, if upheld in court, would be to water down the Brown Act requiring public agencies to conduct their activities openly.

The opinion ruled specifically on the right of a City Council to meet in secret with the city attorney. In general, all such discussions must be in public, Mosk ruled. However he made one exception —when matters discussed involve actual litigation.

This was his reasoning: The public "has a right to know all of the factors considered by the council, including the legal advice, if any, received. . . . However, there is no indication in the language used in the Brown Act that its purpose is to grant in any fashion an advantage to the adversary of the people."

Whoa! Wait a minute. "The adversary of the people!" Who are we talking about? The Russians? Men from outer space? Apes? Insects?

No. We're talking about a resident and a taxpayer. One of the people. One of those with the right to know.

The opinion cites as an example the need for a client-attorney confidential relationship in condemnation suits for property to be purchased by the city.

Let's take a look at that. If the city decides to condemn someone's house, does that make the homeowner an "adversary of the people"? Does he lose his right to know what his elected representatives are doing just because they have decided they are going to run him out of his house?

And about this "client-attorney" relationship! Just who is the client anyway? The city council? No. The people are the client. If there is going to be an attorney-client relationship the attorney should speak right out so his client can hear—all of them.

We had an example of a secret condemnation proceeding a few years ago in Marin County. The supervisors were going to buy a site near Corte Madera for a civic center. Everything was arranged in private. Then the news leaked out. The word was immediately passed that one of the supervisors had a personal interest in the property involved. Whether the story was true or not, the whole thing blew up.

And there is one more thing about these condemnation suits. Usually the "reason" put forward in behalf of secrecy is that the city, or county, doesn't want to divulge the value of the land as reported by its appraisers because then the price of the land will go up.

What is the duty of the city, to cheat some fellow out of his land? Or is it to pay him a fair price? Getting the appraised values out in the open would show everybody what the land was worth as compared to how much the council actually paid for it.

We believe the attorney general's office is clutching at a broken straw in saying "there is no indication in the (Brown Act) language" that would grant "an advantage to an adversary of the people." There also is nothing in the Brown Act taking away the rights of the people to know one specific type of advice their attorney is giving their representatives.

Attorney General Mosk himself did not write this opinion. We think perhaps he better take a critical look at it himself.

RESCUE THROUGH THE CLOUDS

A big airliner guided a single-engine plane to safety last June when the smaller craft, flying at 14,000 feet, became lost in a fog over Lake Michigan.

The little Beechcraft, which had no instruments, was trapped on top of a heavy overcast and could not risk a descent through the thick layer of clouds. Its distress signal was picked up by the control tower at Chicago's Midway Airport.

The pilot of a TWA Constellation, destined for New York and Boston with 49 passengers, volunteered to go to the rescue. Establishing radio contact with the fog-bound plane, the Constellation's skipper directed it 70 miles to a safe landing at Joliet, Ill.

To be sure, it will take time, trouble and inconvenience. But it will enrich your life if you give kindly direction to those less fortunate than yourself.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

You are far more likely to die from a blood transfusion than a commercial airplane crash. Americans now have 5½ million transfusions annually. The fatality rate is about 1 in 1,000.

It's cheaper to have your teeth fixed when young. Three out of five U. S. dentists charge lower fees for children than adults.

Civilization requires someone to be on duty at all times. Now 16 per cent of the nation's workers perform their chores between 9 at night and 6 in the morning.

Items for dieters: Medical annals list 11 men and 6 women who weighed over 700 pounds. The champ: Miles Darden, a 19th Century Tennesseean who tipped the scales at more than 1,000 pounds.

Bowling is getting to be one of the nation's more educational sports. The game now has 16 million men players and 11 million women fans.

Nature lore: Can you name the only bird that walks upright like a man, and the only fish that swims upright? They are the penguin and the sea horse.

The cost of government: In 1885 each American's share of federal taxes was about $1.98. Today it costs more than that to get someone to fill out your tax return.

There's money in stamps. Inadvertently, a 24-cent stamp issued in 1918 was printed upside down. A corner block of four of these stamps is now valued at up to $35,000.

Cloud-high but sober: The average airline passenger doesn't drink while aloft. Records of national airlines show an average of only 17 drinks served per flight—on planes holding from 44 to 129 passengers.

HOW THINGS are done: A management report found that of the 130 letters a day the average company president gets, here is what happens to them: 50 perc ent never reach his eye. He takes some kind of action of 35 (including throwing some into the wastebasket). And 15 per cent he passes on to others to handle as they decide.

IT WAS Alfred E. Smith who observed: "The American people never carry an umbrella. They prepare to walk in eternal sunshine."

PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1

On Our Way To The Nothing Dollar

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Public Enemy No. 1 is never counted in the FBI's list of the 10-most-wanted criminals. Public Enemy No. 1 is NOT a man.

This top public enemy is a system or a state of mind which steals from everyone, young or old.

This enemy is monetary inflation, a stuffy phrase. The Hon. Howard Buffett of Nebraska phrased it much better when he called it the rotting of the U. S. dollar. The U. S. dollar is rotting away, no doubt about that. For example:

ACCEPT AS A standard of value the 1939 U. S. dollar and accept its value as 100 cents. Six years later, after the end of World War II, that dollar had rotted or shrunk to a purchasing power of 77.2 cents.

By 1949, the 1939 dollar had shrunk to a 58.3 cents value. These figures were prepared by the staff of the Senate Finance Committee whose chairman is Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, a Democrat.

The rate of shrinkage was slowing in 1949. Then, along came the Korean War. By January 1959, the proud U. S. dollar was not even worth four bits. Actual purchasing power value, 48 cents.

WAR, HOWEVER, is not solely responsible.

Byrd and the finance committee use the 1939 dollar as the standard of value because 1939 approximately was the year in which the depression deflation of the dollar was overcome. Use of the 1939 standard shows what currency inflation has done in our times. This shrinkage of the dollar in your pocket, your bank or in bonds—U. S. Savings Bonds, for instance—is not merely larceny. It is the grandest larceny, the greatest theft from the most people.

THE ROTTING of the dollar has slowed from time to time. Once or twice it has stopped altogether for as long as two months. Some of the big bites taken by inflation from your dollar were these: 1939-45—22.8 cents; 1945-49—18.9 cents; 1941—4.8 cents; 1942—9.1 cents; 1948 — 4.4 cents; 1951—4.3 cents. Since 1951, the annual shrinkage usually has been at the rate of one cent or less, often much less.

In the first five months of 1960, inflation squeezed only five-tenths of one per cent from the dollar's purchasing power. That is comforting, of course. If creeping inflation creeps no faster than that, most adults of 1960 can face the future unafraid. They will not live long enough for their dollar to become worth absolutely nothing, as once happened to the German mark, to Chinese money and, almost, to the French franc.

THE NOTHING dollar, like the national debt, will be the worry of children and grandchildren, present and prospective.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

An ingenious soul leased the languishing men's hat department in a big store and soon had the dismal sales figures perking up. He would edge up to every hatless man in the store and say, "Get on the job; stop stalling." "What do you mean?" the indignant gent thus accosted would splutter. "I'm a CUSTOMER here." "Pardon me," the hat man would murmur regretfully. "Without a hat, you look like a CLERK."

Three times out of four, the customer would hurry right over to the hat department and buy at least one hat to impress into immediate service.

10 YEARS AGO

After a two-year tour of California, the California Historical Caravan reached Marin County as end of its schedule. Central locations in five cities were picked for showing of many treasures including Drake's "plate of brasse."

Mill Valley Police Chief James McGowan urged parents to keep their youngsters in at night, due to an epidemic of theft of parts from parked cars and six arrests of juvenile offenders within 10 days.

20 YEARS AGO

As interurban train service by Northwestern Pacific ended between Sausalito and Mill Valley, buses taking over, track torpedoes by the hundreds were strewn along the route to give a gunfire-like finale.

Installation of showers at San Quentin Prison was authorized by the prison board. Instructions were given to the warden to allow time off for showers by workers in the jute mill.

Leake Gives Fair Warning North Must Defeat Proposition By 90%

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A stinging attack on Proposition 15 on the Nov. 8 ballot was made at Friday's meeting of the North Coast Council of the California State Chamber of Commerce in Santa Rosa by Paul R. Leake, Woodland publisher and member of the State Board of Equalization.

Leake, never one to pull punches when lashing out at what he considers wrong, said it is time the people of the state learn the "frightening facts, else northern counties will become satellites revolving around the Southern moon" if the measure passes.

HE DECLARED there is appalling public indifference to the issue, which would apportion 20 of the 40 seats in the state senate to Southern California, including seven to Los Angeles County alone.

"The North and the governor would be powerless to put the brakes on the Southern machine," he asserted. "We'd be flattened by the steam roller. This is a bi-partisan issue. Republican and Democratic central committees should join forces to knock this irresponsible proposal into kingdom come.

TO STEM THE VOTE tide from populous Los Angeles, we will need close to a 90 per cent NO vote in the north. Northerners must get into the act. If we don't shore up our defenses, we can be swept off the map of California!"

He pointed out Los Angeles County already has 31 representatives in the Assembly, claimed the South "rides herd" in the lower house, and pointed out that "if Proposition 15 should carry, the governor couldn't get a Mother's Day resolution through the legislature without the consent of the dictators from the South."

Leake also cited the danger of possible division of the state if the amendment passes, but said this is not the sensible answer to the problem.

Generally, Proposition 15, the only initiative on the Nov. 8 ballot, is opposed by officialdom. Gov. Edmund G. Brown has come out against it, and so have most of the state's senators from Northern California.

We Are All Political, Some Of Us Just More Than Others

We are all political. But some people are more so than others.

The other day we were talking to Korla Pandit, an Indian concert pianist who lives in Mill Valley. It was the day of the Fall Festival and people were carrying balloons, milling in the warm sun and everything in the town was in a spirit of here we go gathering nuts and may.

Pandit, handsome in his navy blue jacket and light blue turban, said he did not mind.

AT THIS THE LADY asked him to move over against the red bricks. "Better color you know." He moved. Snap she went. Then she said "Thank you" and was gone.

Political she was not. Of President Eisenhower's people-to-people program she was unaware.

Almost immediately a gushy woman came up and said to Pandit, "Pardon me, but would you mind autographing this for me?" She handed him a dollar bill. He smiled, leaned forward, saying he could not write on the wall because ball point pens don't write uphill. Finished, the woman zipped off with her autograph with a quick thank you. Dear ones, this could not be political.

WE ARE DEMOCRATS. Our shortest son is Republican. The reason we know is that he has a Nixon button which he found. We tried to swap him a Kennedy button for his button but he wouldn't go for that.

Political?

Then there is Kelly. Kelly, you know, is the only three-legged dog in Mill Valley. The other day we were shocked to see him sitting outside the door of Morrie's Do-Nut Kettle begging. He wasn't really begging. He just sits there by the screen door smelling the smells and waits until someone comes out with a bag.

Then he looks at them with his doughnut eye and, sometimes, gets a smackerel of something.

We forgive Kelly because we know that, to a certain extent, we are all beggars. Political?

CHARLES BURKS, the amiable Saturday bootblack at Mill Valley's Oak Barber Shop, has given up his Monday through Friday shoe shining days to sell, polish and wash cars at Kobil used cars.

Politically minded since the 20's, Burks said with regard to the coming election, "I don't know what people are hollering about. The average person has two cars in his garage. Some have three. Now you can get a home with $95 down. I want to know what people have to holler about?

"People now want a Chinese Oriental rug in the bathroom and a TV in every room. They can't come up to it because you can't put a quart of water in a pint bottle."

BURKS, WHO LIVES in Marin City, said, "Sometimes I work shining shoes for a whole day and make but $1.50, but I don't owe anybody.

"I wash and polish, but I sell more cars than anything. I sold a $995 car last Saturday; I sold a $150 Plymouth yesterday and also a $250 Buick.

"My diabetes is 400 plus some days, but I work so I don't have to sit in anybody's lap. If I can do that, the rest of the people can do it. We have people just lying around waiting for help. They could be working. Things are better than they ever were."

We are all political, but some people are more than others.

Only First Wave Of Mr. K's U.N. Attack Has Hit; Watch Second

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —It is too early to be sure, but there are signs that the first wave of Mr. K.'s diplomatic offensive has passed its crest. There is no doubt that there will be a second wave, but it may be that it will not come immediately,

If this proves to be correct, we can say that while Mr. K. has failed to conquer or to wreck the U. N., he has staged a powerful and significant demonstration against the status quo. His campaign is not over. Indeed it is just launched. And there is no time to be wasted in preparing our minds and our policies for the long conflict of which we have seen only the beginning.

LAST WEEK, in the most revealing of all his speeches at the U. N., Mr. K. made clear what is behind the uproar he has been creating. It is that "the structure of some United Nations bodies," which was "normal," 15 years ago, "is now out of date."

In 1945, when the U. N. was founded, the assumption was that the U. N. would be led by the five victorious big powers in World War II, that is to say by the Soviet Union, Kuomintang China, Great Britain, France, and the United States.

Since 1945, the Soviet Union has become a very great power, Kuomintang China has collapsed on the Chinese mainland, and a billion people, formerly under colonial rule, have become independent.

THE U. N., HE ASSERTS, reflects the power structure of the world in 1945 and not the power structure of the world today.

His object is to reform the U. N.—or more specifically to reform the Security Council and the Secretariat—in order that they may reflect the facts which are, he asserts, that "not only law and justice but force too is on the side of" the Communist orbit and the neutrals.

The United States and its Western allies are, he asserts, still preponderant in the U. N. But they are no longer preponderant in the world.

Once again, as in his torrent of insults after the U-2, Mr. K. has overplayed his hand and has played it badly. For he has directed the brunt of his assault not at the undoubted weaknesses of the U. N. structure, but at its strongest and most progressive and most inspiring success. This is the emergence of the office of secretary general under Dag Hammarskjold's brilliant direction as an indispensable protector of the peace among small nations.

Hammarskjold is not out of date but the composition of the Security Council is out of date. The bloc voting, in which we have had so conspicuous a part, has been abused in such matters as the Chinese representation, the election to the presidency of the General Assembly, and the election of non-permanent members to the Security Council.

THERE IS ROOM for negotiation and for reform. But what is not negotiable is the one thing that Mr. K. has made the most of—his proposal to abolish the secretary general and to replace him by an inherently discordant committee.

If we care about the future, let us not think that Mr. K.'s mistake has been our success. Let us not sink into torpor and complacency until Mr. K. launches, as he surely will, the next wave of his campaign.

Bowling is getting to be one of the nation's more educational sports. The game now has 16 million men players and 11 million women fans.

Nature lore: Can you name the only bird that walks upright like a man, and the only fish that swims upright? They are the penguin and the sea horse.

The cost of government: In 1885 each American's share of federal taxes was about $1.98. Today it costs more than that to get someone to fill out your tax return.

There's money in stamps. Inadvertently, a 24-cent stamp issued in 1918 was printed upside down. A corner block of four of these stamps is now valued at up to $35,000.

Cloud-high but sober: The average airline passenger doesn't drink while aloft. Records of national airlines show an average of only 17 drinks served per flight—on planes holding from 44 to 129 passengers.

HOW THINGS are done: A management report found that of the 130 letters a day the average company president gets, here is what happens to them: 50 perc ent never reach his eye. He takes some kind of action of 35 (including throwing some into the wastebasket). And 15 per cent he passes on to others to handle as they decide.

IT WAS Alfred E. Smith who observed: "The American people never carry an umbrella. They prepare to walk in eternal sunshine."

PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1

On Our Way To The Nothing Dollar

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Public Enemy No. 1 is never counted in the FBI's list of the 10-most-wanted criminals. Public Enemy No. 1 is NOT a man.

This top public enemy is a system or a state of mind which steals from everyone, young or old.

This enemy is monetary inflation, a stuffy phrase. The Hon. Howard Buffett of Nebraska phrased it much better when he called it the rotting of the U. S. dollar. The U. S. dollar is rotting away, no doubt about that. For example:

ACCEPT AS A standard of value the 1939 U. S. dollar and accept its value as 100 cents. Six years later, after the end of World War II, that dollar had rotted or shrunk to a purchasing power of 77.2 cents.

By 1949, the 1939 dollar had shrunk to a 58.3 cents value. These figures were prepared by the staff of the Senate Finance Committee whose chairman is Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, a Democrat.

The rate of shrinkage was slowing in 1949. Then, along came the Korean War. By January 1959, the proud U. S. dollar was not even worth four bits. Actual purchasing power value, 48 cents.

The last figure presently available is for May, 1960. The dollar was worth 47 cents then.

WAR, HOWEVER, is not solely responsible.

Byrd and the finance committee use the 1939 dollar as the standard of value because 1939 approximately was the year in which the depression deflation of the dollar was overcome. Use of the 1939 standard shows what currency inflation has done in our times. This shrinkage of the dollar in your pocket, your bank or in bonds—U. S. Savings Bonds, for instance—is not merely larceny. It is the grandest larceny, the greatest theft from the most people.

THE ROTTING of the dollar has slowed from time to time. Once or twice it has stopped altogether for as long as two months. Some of the big bites taken by inflation from your dollar were these: 1939-45—22.8 cents; 1945-49—18.9 cents; 1941—4.8 cents; 1942—9.1 cents; 1948 — 4.4 cents; 1951—4.3 cents. Since 1951, the annual shrinkage usually has been at the rate of one cent or less, often much less.

In the first five months of 1960, inflation squeezed only five-tenths of one per cent from the dollar's purchasing power. That is comforting, of course. If creeping inflation creeps no faster than that, most adults of 1960 can face the future unafraid. They will not live long enough for their dollar to become worth absolutely nothing, as once happened to the German mark, to Chinese money and, almost, to the French franc.

THE NOTHING dollar, like the national debt, will be the worry of children and grandchildren, present and prospective.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

An ingenious soul leased the languishing men's hat department in a big store and soon had the dismal sales figures perking up. He would edge up to every hatless man in the store and say, "Get on the job; stop stalling." "What do you mean?" the indignant gent thus accosted would splutter. "I'm a CUSTOMER here." "Pardon me," the hat man would murmur regretfully. "Without a hat, you look like a CLERK."

Three times out of four, the customer would hurry right over to the hat department and buy at least one hat to impress into immediate service.

10 YEARS AGO

After a two-year tour of California, the California Historical Caravan reached Marin County as end of its schedule. Central locations in five cities were picked for showing of many treasures including Drake's "plate of brasse."

Mill Valley Police Chief James McGowan urged parents to keep their youngsters in at night, due to an epidemic of theft of parts from parked cars and six arrests of juvenile offenders within 10 days.

20 YEARS AGO

As interurban train service by Northwestern Pacific ended between Sausalito and Mill Valley, buses taking over, track torpedoes by the hundreds were strewn along the route to give a gunfire-like finale.

Installation of showers at San Quentin Prison was authorized by the prison board. Instructions were given to the warden to allow time off for showers by workers in the jute mill.

Leake Gives Fair Warning North Must Defeat Proposition By 90%

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A stinging attack on Proposition 15 on the Nov. 8 ballot was made at Friday's meeting of the North Coast Council of the California State Chamber of Commerce in Santa Rosa by Paul R. Leake, Woodland publisher and member of the State Board of Equalization.

Leake, never one to pull punches when lashing out at what he considers wrong, said it is time the people of the state learn the "frightening facts, else northern counties will become satellites revolving around the Southern moon" if the measure passes.

HE DECLARED there is appalling public indifference to the issue, which would apportion 20 of the 40 seats in the state senate to Southern California, including seven to Los Angeles County alone.

"The North and the governor would be powerless to put the brakes on the Southern machine," he asserted. "We'd be flattened by the steam roller. This is a bi-partisan issue. Republican and Democratic central committees should join forces to knock this irresponsible proposal into kingdom come.

TO STEM THE VOTE tide from populous Los Angeles, we will need close to a 90 per cent NO vote in the north. Northerners must get into the act. If we don't shore up our defenses, we can be swept off the map of California!"

He pointed out Los Angeles County already has 31 representatives in the Assembly, claimed the South "rides herd" in the lower house, and pointed out that "if Proposition 15 should carry, the governor couldn't get a Mother's Day resolution through the legislature without the consent of the dictators from the South."

Leake also cited the danger of possible division of the state if the amendment passes, but said this is not the sensible answer to the problem.

Generally, Proposition 15, the only initiative on the Nov. 8 ballot, is opposed by officialdom. Gov. Edmund G. Brown has come out against it, and so have most of the state's senators from Northern California.

We Are All Political, Some Of Us Just More Than Others

We are all political. But some people are more so than others.

The other day we were talking to Korla Pandit, an Indian concert pianist who lives in Mill Valley. It was the day of the Fall Festival and people were carrying balloons, milling in the warm sun and everything in the town was in a spirit of here we go gathering nuts and may.

Pandit's son, Karam, was pulling his father's arm, wanting to go to the fair.

Pandit, handsome in his navy blue jacket and light blue turban, said he did not mind.

AT THIS THE LADY asked him to move over against the red bricks. "Better color you know." He moved. Snap she went. Then she said "Thank you" and was gone.

Political she was not. Of President Eisenhower's people-to-people program she was unaware.

Almost immediately a gushy woman came up and said to Pandit, "Pardon me, but would you mind autographing this for me?" She handed him a dollar bill. He smiled, leaned forward, saying he could not write on the wall because ball point pens don't write uphill. Finished, the woman zipped off with her autograph with a quick thank you. Dear ones, this could not be political.

WE ARE DEMOCRATS. Our shortest son is Republican. The reason we know is that he has a Nixon button which he found. We tried to swap him a Kennedy button for his button but he wouldn't go for that.

Political?

Then there is Kelly. Kelly, you know, is the only three-legged dog in Mill Valley. The other day we were shocked to see him sitting outside the door of Morrie's Do-Nut Kettle begging. He wasn't really begging. He just sits there by the screen door smelling the smells and waits until someone comes out with a bag.

Then he looks at them with his doughnut eye and, sometimes, gets a smackerel of something.

We forgive Kelly because we know that, to a certain extent, we are all beggars. Political?

CHARLES BURKS, the amiable Saturday bootblack at Mill Valley's Oak Barber Shop, has given up his Monday through Friday shoe shining days to sell, polish and wash cars at Kobil used cars.

Politically minded since the 20's, Burks said with regard to the coming election, "I don't know what people are hollering about. The average person has two cars in his garage. Some have three. Now you can get a home with $95 down. I want to know what people have to holler about?

"People now want a Chinese Oriental rug in the bathroom and a TV in every room. They can't come up to it because you can't put a quart of water in a pint bottle."

BURKS, WHO LIVES in Marin City, said, "Sometimes I work shining shoes for a whole day and make but $1.50, but I don't owe anybody.

"I wash and polish, but I sell more cars than anything. I sold a $995 car last Saturday; I sold a $150 Plymouth yesterday and also a $250 Buick.

"My diabetes is 400 plus some days, but I work so I don't have to sit in anybody's lap. If I can do that, the rest of the people can do it. We have people just lying around waiting for help. They could be working. Things are better than they ever were."

We are all political, but some people are more than others.

WALTER LIPPMANN

Only First Wave Of Mr. K's U.N. Attack Has Hit; Watch Second

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —It is too early to be sure, but there are signs that the first wave of Mr. K.'s diplomatic offensive has passed its crest. There is no doubt that there will be a second wave, but it may be that it will not come immediately,

If this proves to be correct, we can say that while Mr. K. has failed to conquer or to wreck the U. N., he has staged a powerful and significant demonstration against the status quo. His campaign is not over. Indeed it is just launched. And there is no time to be wasted in preparing our minds and our policies for the long conflict of which we have seen only the beginning.

LAST WEEK, in the most revealing of all his speeches at the U. N., Mr. K. made clear what is behind the uproar he has been creating. It is that "the structure of some United Nations bodies," which was "normal," 15 years ago, "is now out of date."

In 1945, when the U. N. was founded, the assumption was that the U. N. would be led by the five victorious big powers in World War II, that is to say by the Soviet Union, Kuomintang China, Great Britain, France, and the United States.

Since 1945, the Soviet Union has become a very great power, Kuomintang China has collapsed on the Chinese mainland, and a billion people, formerly under colonial rule, have become independent.

THE U. N., HE ASSERTS, reflects the power structure of the world in 1945 and not the power structure of the world today.

His object is to reform the U. N.—or more specifically to reform the Security Council and the Secretariat—in order that they may reflect the facts which are, he asserts, that "not only law and justice but force too is on the side of" the Communist orbit and the neutrals.

The United States and its Western allies are, he asserts, still preponderant in the U. N. But they are no longer preponderant in the world.

Once again, as in his torrent of insults after the U-2, Mr. K. has overplayed his hand and has played it badly. For he has directed the brunt of his assault not at the undoubted weaknesses of the U. N. structure, but at its strongest and most progressive and most inspiring success. This is the emergence of the office of secretary general under Dag Hammarskjold's brilliant direction as an indispensable protector of the peace among small nations.

Hammarskjold is not out of date but the composition of the Security Council is out of date. The bloc voting, in which we have had so conspicuous a part, has been abused in such matters as the Chinese representation, the election to the presidency of the General Assembly, and the election of non-permanent members to the Security Council.

THERE IS ROOM for negotiation and for reform. But what is not negotiable is the one thing that Mr. K. has made the most of—his proposal to abolish the secretary general and to replace him by an inherently discordant committee.

If we care about the future, let us not think that Mr. K.'s mistake has been our success. Let us not sink into torpor and complacency until Mr. K. launches, as he surely will, the next wave of his campaign.

Hearing Defect Can Slow Down Learning Of Even Smart Pupil

Young Tom Edison hated school. He was unpopular. He played hooky. His teachers thought he was retarded.

Did you know that?

As a boy Edison had a minor hearing loss. He missed part of what was being said. He had the most creative mind of his generation, but his teachers called him stupid.

Tragic, wasn't it?

It's easy for teachers to spot boys and girls with extreme hearing losses. They get help. It is hard to find those with minor losses. They suffer.

I've studied them. They are unhappy, suspicious, afraid. They think they are dumb. So do their parents. They are behind in their studies. They're held back at promotion time. They play hooky. Some become delinquent.

How many are there? A significant number. At least one child in a hundred has an unsuspected hearing loss great enough to interfere seriously with his work.

What can we do for them?

Two things. The first is to find them. Every school should give scientific hearing tests regularly. Those students who need hearing aids should wear them.

The second job is to teach them lip reading. The teachers are available. They can go from school to school. They can work with them a few hours a week. The cost is not great, and the results are wonderful.

What is happening to hard-of-hearing children at your school? I suggest you check and see.

Cruising Club Site Changed

The Sausalito Cruising Club has canceled its application for a county building permit to build a clubhouse at the Kappas Harbor at Waldo Point due to long delays and postponements by the Marin County Planning Commission.

John S. Gudelj, commodore of the club, asked the permit be canceled saying "in the course of the long delays of many postponements, we have secured a location in Sausalito with the full cooperation of its city council, planning commission and citizens."

The club has received informal approval from the city council to build its clubhouse on a barge at the foot of Johnson street.

The matter is to come before the Sausalito Planning Commission next Thursday.

The officers went to school eight hours a day and worked the night shift at the police departments. They were given basic police training, including patrol, investigation, and traffic.

Brown Is 'Court Of Last Appeal' For 8 Sentenced To Gas Chamber

(First in a series on California's controversy over capital punishment.)

By DE VAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown, a Roman Catholic and an outspoken opponent of the death penalty, stands as a "court of last appeal" between 17 men and one woman and death.

The 18, sentenced to die in the state's lethal gas chamber at San Quentin Prison have one final chance when all else fails —an appeal for clemency from the governor.

Brown has said that this appeal is "not jacketed by the forms or technicalities of the law, but amied at conscience and last truth."

But he also has said: "I don't know whether a governor can play God in these cases."

A few days after he made that statement he let Caryl Chessman die because "I feel I have taken an oath of office and I have sworn to uphold the laws even though I don't like them . . ."

The death of Chessman, convicted in 1948 as the "red light bandit" of Los Angeles, set off a worldwide reaction. He had been sentenced to die on charges of kidnaping, robbery and forced sex perversion. Brown reprieved him once to let the state legislature consider abolishing the death penalty but refused to commute the May 2 death sentence, after the legislature had turned him down.

While Brown has been governor, 14 men have walked into the green lethal gas chamber.

But eight men have been given executive clemency—the right to life behind bars—since Brown took office in January, 1959.

Brown said five of these were insane and that he is "amazed and profoundly disturbed at the constancy with which the picture of gross mental abnormality has emerged."

To look into such cases, Brown appointed a special committee on legal insanity, which is now making a study into the criminal mind and what constitutes a mind incapable of being adjudged guilty of murder.

The case of John R. Crooker Jr., a Los Angeles murderer, set the tone for Brown's five commutations on grounds of insanity. In this case Brown said: "The record clearly shows that I personally believe that Crooker is guilty of murder of the first degree . . . (but) his psychiatric reports reflect mental illness which undoubtedly contributed to his emotional blowup."

Although sanity was the major ground for commutation by Brown, it wasn't the only reason. In three cases, Brown was concerned over whether the sentence was justified.

He commuted Harold A. Longdon and Edward S. Wein, both from Los Angeles, because he believed the state's "Little Lindbergh" kidnaping statute was used too liberally. In each case the victim was kidnaped by being moved only a short distance—and then for the purpose of rape-robbery, which is punishable by death.

In the only other case, Brown felt the death sentence unjustified by the criminal's youth and the fact that his partner in crime was sentenced to life in prison.

In office only a little more than two years, Brown has equalled the commutation total of Earl Warren, now chief justice of the United States, who was governor from 1943 to 1953. He is one up on Goodwin J. Knight, governor from 1953 to 1959.

Warren let 82 persons die in the gas chamber compared with the 14 Brown has refused to commute. Of the eight, Warren commuted the death sentences of three because they were insane, four because he felt the punishment too severe for the crime and one because he was convinced the death sentence resulted from the criminal being a Negro.

Knight, while granting seven commutations, let the executions of 41 proceed. Sanity was his reason for granting one commutation, in two cases he questioned the guilt of the convicted persons and in three cases he commuted the death sentence of felons convicted of assault while they were serving life sentences.

But the three governors aren't even close to the record commutation total of Culbert L. Olson, the only Democratic governor besides Brown to be elected in this century. Olson commuted 16 death sentences in his first two years in office and in his third and fourth years added four more to put his total at 20.

In addition, he pardoned Thomas Mooney, probably one of the most controversial persons in recent California history.

Belvedere's Recreation Unit To Meet

The Belvedere Recreation Commission will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Belevedere Comunity Hall for an open discussion on the feasibility of recreational facilities on the four lots adjacent to the homes on pilings proposed for Belvedere Island's western tidelands.

At last week's city council meeting, Councilman H. Nordmaark Wiliams suggested to the Belvedere Land Co., owners of the property, that it donate the land to the city for recreational use. The land company countered with the suggestion that the recreation commission first study the overall recreational problems of Belvedere residents.

Chairman Steinau said, "We welcome any suggestions from residents on this study."

Also on the agenda is the plan for the annual "twelfth night" community bonfire of Christmas trees, Steinau said.

San Anselmo city coucilmen will open bids on six cars at the regular meeting set for 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Hearing Defect Can Slow Down Learning Of Even Smart Pupil

Young Tom Edison hated school. He was unpopular. He played hooky. His teachers thought he was retarded.

Did you know that?

As a boy Edison had a minor hearing loss. He missed part of what was being said. He had the most creative mind of his generation, but his teachers called him stupid.

Tragic, wasn't it?

I'm sorry to say that many school people still misjudge hard-of-hearing kids. Our next Edison may be floundering right now.

It's easy for teachers to spot boys and girls with extreme hearing losses. They get help. It is hard to find those with minor losses. They suffer.

I've studied them. They are unhappy, suspicious, afraid. They think they are dumb. So do their parents. They are behind in their studies. They're held back at promotion time. They play hooky. Some become delinquent.

How many are there? A significant number. At least one child in a hundred has an unsuspected hearing loss great enough to interfere seriously with his work.

What can we do for them?

Two things. The first is to find them. Every school should give scientific hearing tests regularly. Those students who need hearing aids should wear them.

The second job is to teach them lip reading. The teachers are available. They can go from school to school. They can work with them a few hours a week. The cost is not great, and the results are wonderful.

What is happening to hard-of-hearing children at your school? I suggest you check and see.

Cruising Club Site Changed

The Sausalito Cruising Club has canceled its application for a county building permit to build a clubhouse at the Kappas Harbor at Waldo Point due to long delays and postponements by the Marin County Planning Commission.

John S. Gudelj, commodore of the club, asked the permit be canceled saying "in the course of the long delays of many postponements, we have secured a location in Sausalito with the full cooperation of its city council, planning commission and citizens."

The club has received informal approval from the city council to build its clubhouse on a barge at the foot of Johnson street.

The matter is to come before the Sausalito Planning Commission next Thursday.

Brown Is 'Court Of Last Appeal' For 8 Sentenced To Gas Chamber

(First in a series on California's controversy over capital punishment.)

By DE VAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown, a Roman Catholic and an outspoken opponent of the death penalty, stands as a "court of last appeal" between 17 men and one woman and death.

The 18, sentenced to die in the state's lethal gas chamber at San Quentin Prison have one final chance when all else fails —an appeal for clemency from the governor.

Brown has said that this appeal is "not jacketed by the forms or technicalities of the law, but amied at conscience and last truth."

But he also has said: "I don't know whether a governor can play God in these cases."

A few days after he made that statement he let Caryl Chessman die because "I feel I have taken an oath of office and I have sworn to uphold the laws even though I don't like them . . ."

The death of Chessman, convicted in 1948 as the "red light bandit" of Los Angeles, set off a worldwide reaction. He had been sentenced to die on charges of kidnaping, robbery and forced sex perversion. Brown reprieved him once to let the state legislature consider abolishing the death penalty but refused to commute the May 2 death sentence, after the legislature had turned him down.

While Brown has been governor, 14 men have walked into the green lethal gas chamber.

But eight men have been given executive clemency—the right to life behind bars—since Brown took office in January, 1959.

Brown said five of these were insane and that he is "amazed and profoundly disturbed at the constancy with which the picture of gross mental abnormality has emerged."

To look into such cases, Brown appointed a special committee on legal insanity, which is now making a study into the criminal mind and what constitutes a mind incapable of being adjudged guilty of murder.

The case of John R. Crooker Jr., a Los Angeles murderer, set the tone for Brown's five commutations on grounds of insanity. In this case Brown said: "The record clearly shows that I personally believe that Crooker is guilty of murder of the first degree . . . (but) his psychiatric reports reflect mental illness which undoubtedly contributed to his emotional blowup."

Although sanity was the major ground for commutation by Brown, it wasn't the only reason. In three cases, Brown was concerned over whether the sentence was justified.

He commuted Harold A. Longdon and Edward S. Wein, both from Los Angeles, because he believed the state's "Little Lindbergh" kidnaping statute was used too liberally. In each case the victim was kidnaped by being moved only a short distance—and then for the purpose of rape-robbery, which is punishable by death.

In the only other case, Brown felt the death sentence unjustified by the criminal's youth and the fact that his partner in crime was sentenced to life in prison.

In office only a little more than two years, Brown has equalled the commutation total of Earl Warren, now chief justice of the United States, who was governor from 1943 to 1953. He is one up on Goodwin J. Knight, governor from 1953 to 1959.

Warren let 82 persons die in the gas chamber compared with the 14 Brown has refused to commute. Of the eight, Warren commuted the death sentences of three because they were insane, four because he felt the punishment too severe for the crime and one because he was convinced the death sentence resulted from the criminal being a Negro.

Knight, while granting seven commutations, let the executions of 41 proceed. Sanity was his reason for granting one commutation, in two cases he questioned the guilt of the convicted persons and in three cases he commuted the death sentence of felons convicted of assault while they were serving life sentences.

But the three governors aren't even close to the record commutation total of Culbert L. Olson, the only Democratic governor besides Brown to be elected in this century. Olson commuted 16 death sentences in his first two years in office and in his third and fourth years added four more to put his total at 20.

In addition, he pardoned Thomas Mooney, probably one of the most controversial persons in recent California history.

Belvedere's Recreation Unit To Meet

The Belvedere Recreation Commission will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Belevedere Comunity Hall for an open discussion on the feasibility of recreational facilities on the four lots adjacent to the homes on pilings proposed for Belvedere Island's western tidelands.

At last week's city council meeting, Councilman H. Nordmaark Wiliams suggested to the Belvedere Land Co., owners of the property, that it donate the land to the city for recreational use. The land company countered with the suggestion that the recreation commission first study the overall recreational problems of Belvedere residents.

Chairman Steinau said, "We welcome any suggestions from residents on this study."

Also on the agenda is the plan for the annual "twelfth night" community bonfire of Christmas trees, Steinau said.

Education Board To Call For Bids

Hub City Council To Open Bids On New Vehicles

San Anselmo city coucilmen will open bids on six cars at the regular meeting set for 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall.

WORLD'S LARGEST
Manufacturer of swimming pools has developed a unit which meets the needs & desires of thousands of pool-hungry families, at a price they can easily afford.
These have sold like hot cakes back East and our firm has been selected to distribute them here in the nation's No. 1 pool market. We, in turn, are appointing agents locally. Marin and Sonoma counties are to be set up immediately.
While this will be of particular interest to builders, building supply dealers, patio & garden shops, etc., this opportunity is not restricted to them. No experience in this field is needed, but you must be established in your community with a good reputation and a minimum of $1,200 cash or ability to finance this amount fully secured by merchandise. You pay no franchise fee.
No storage problem, as you draw from your local warehouse. Local bank financing has been arranged. Trained assemblers are available, if desired. You may start on a part-time basis.
Thanks to a unique patented invention, fog, wind and rain are no problem, and you will start making money RIGHT NOW.
We've laid all the groundwork — you need only write Box #175 to find whether you qualify, to get in on the beginning with the hottest item ever to hit the swimming pool market

WORLD'S LARGEST
Manufacturer of swimming pools has developed a unit which meets the needs & desires of thousands of pool-hungry families, at a price they can easily afford.
These have sold like hot cakes back East and our firm has been selected to distribute them here in the nation's No. 1 pool market. We, in turn, are appointing agents locally. Marin and Sonoma counties are to be set up immediately.
While this will be of particular interest to builders, building supply dealers, patio & garden shops, etc., this opportunity is not restricted to them. No experience in this field is needed, but you must be established in your community with a good reputation and a minimum of $1,200 cash or ability to finance this amount fully secured by merchandise. You pay no franchise fee.
No storage problem, as you draw from your local warehouse. Local bank financing has been arranged. Trained assemblers are available, if desired. You may start on a part-time basis.
Thanks to a unique patented invention, fog, wind and rain are no problem, and you will start making money RIGHT NOW.
We've laid all the groundwork — you need only write Box #175 to find whether you qualify, to get in on the beginning with the hottest item ever to hit the swimming pool market.

25 Novato Churchmen Give Wives Surprise

Twenty-five male members of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Novato last week took their wives out to dinner on the same night without telling them in advance where they were going to eat.

"The wives were amazed when they found upon arrival at Cloud Five in Novato their husbands had secretely planned an inaugural dinner for the newly formed Couple's Club of the church and as members thought for once they had better "out initiate" the women in church activities, said pastor Ole Winter.

Guitarist Will Give Concert In San Rafael

CARLOS RAMOS
Flamenco artist

Carlos Ramos, one of the foremost flamenco guitarists of Spain, will give a concert at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael.

Ramos is celebrated in Europe, South America, Canada and Mexico as a brilliant performer and faithful interpreter of true flamenco. Concert appearances in the leading American cities, television performances, his recordings and tours as soloist with both the Jose Greco Spanish Ballet and the famous company of Hurtado de Cordoba have brought him enthusiastic press notices and an admiring public.

His program will include an ancient form of flamenco, his own composition in which he uses a motive from the melodies of Andalusia, and music of primitive origin from the various provinces, including traditional music of profound religous emotion.

In Field Training

Army Pfc. Robert A. Clinton, 19, son of Mrs. Eldora C. Clinton, 105 Tomales Street, Sausalito, recently participated with other personnel of the 38th Artillery's Battery A in a 10-day field training exercise in Germany.

Muscular Paralysis Often Caused By Defective Spine

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Most of us are familiar with muscles like the biceps and triceps in the upper arm, and the thigh and calf muscles, but few of us are aware that there are nearly 700 muscles in the human body. The great majority of these are in pairs evenly distributed from scalp to toes and fingertips.

The muscles which move or act when we want them to are known as the striped muscles. They are the visible muscles which cover the body surface and the limbs. Some muscle tissue, however, is subject to the commands of nature only, and these are the smooth muscles. The heart muscle is a good example because it keeps on working under the guidance of nature whether we're asleep or awake, conscious or unconscious.

All muscles rely on the nervous system for the source of their power. A vast network of nerves supplies every single muscle with vital energy from the brain. The nerve suppy to a group of muscles sometimes will fail and paralysis occurs.

The cause of the failure often will be found in the spine where a spinal bone (vertebra) has been pushed out of line. The misplaced bone may be pinching the nerve which supplies the paralyzed muscle. Fortunately, such conditions often can be corrected by Chiropractic.

Chiropractors are specialists in finding and correcting nerve interference in the spine painlessly and efficiently by means of hand adjustments. If the interference is corrected in time, before permanent damage can occur, the nerve once again will convey its full quota of power to the affected muscle. The paralyzed muscles then will regain much, if not all, of their former strength and usefulness. Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.

25 Novato Churchmen Give Wives Surprise

Twenty-five male members of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Novato last week took their wives out to dinner on the same night without telling them in advance where they were going to eat.

"The wives were amazed when they found upon arrival at Cloud Five in Novato their husbands had secretely planned an inaugural dinner for the newly formed Couple's Club of the church and as members thought for once they had better "out initiate" the women in church activities, said pastor Ole Winter.

Guitarist Will Give Concert In San Rafael

CARLOS RAMOS
Flamenco artist

Carlos Ramos, one of the foremost flamenco guitarists of Spain, will give a concert at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael.

This is the second public concert in the 1960-61 Dominican College concert artist series.

Ramos is celebrated in Europe, South America, Canada and Mexico as a brilliant performer and faithful interpreter of true flamenco. Concert appearances in the leading American cities, television performances, his recordings and tours as soloist with both the Jose Greco Spanish Ballet and the famous company of Hurtado de Cordoba have brought him enthusiastic press notices and an admiring public.

His program will include an ancient form of flamenco, his own composition in which he uses a motive from the melodies of Andalusia, and music of primitive origin from the various provinces, including traditional music of profound religous emotion.

Muscular Paralysis Often Caused By Defective Spine

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Most of us are familiar with muscles like the biceps and triceps in the upper arm, and the thigh and calf muscles, but few of us are aware that there are nearly 700 muscles in the human body. The great majority of these are in pairs evenly distributed from scalp to toes and fingertips.

The muscles which move or act when we want them to are known as the striped muscles. They are the visible muscles which cover the body surface and the limbs. Some muscle tissue, however, is subject to the commands of nature only, and these are the smooth muscles. The heart muscle is a good example because it keeps on working under the guidance of nature whether we're asleep or awake, conscious or unconscious.

All muscles rely on the nervous system for the source of their power. A vast network of nerves supplies every single muscle with vital energy from the brain. The nerve suppy to a group of muscles sometimes will fail and paralysis occurs.

The cause of the failure often will be found in the spine where a spinal bone (vertebra) has been pushed out of line. The misplaced bone may be pinching the nerve which supplies the paralyzed muscle. Fortunately, such conditions often can be corrected by Chiropractic.

Chiropractors are specialists in finding and correcting nerve interference in the spine painlessly and efficiently by means of hand adjustments. If the interference is corrected in time, before permanent damage can occur, the nerve once again will convey its full quota of power to the affected muscle. The paralyzed muscles then will regain much, if not all, of their former strength and usefulness. Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.

New Buicks Attract Much Interest; The Special Has Pleasing Trimness

Buick's new line of Electras, Invictas, Le Sabres — and the baby of the series, the Special, went on display at Stenstrom's Buick agency in San Rafael last Wednesday. It was too early for a comparative appraisal of their reception by the public; all we could do was look, listen and make a few notes.

Stenstrom's showroom was playing to a fair-sized audience —more, I think, than I'd seen at auto sales openings the week before. It was, as might be expected, clustered around the new Special, Buick's entry in the economy field.

When I remarked on this to Sam Stenstrom he said that the interest was primarily curiosity —he's sold none up to that point but had already made several sales of the other models, mostly to confirmed Buick buyers. The Le Sabre is the best seller in the line.

Actually, Stenstrom had not even had time to prepare a Special demonstrator, had not ridden in one himself and could say little about its performance first hand.

The Special looks exactly like what it is — a small Buick, though I heard some comment from observers on the similarity of front fenders to those of the new Ford. Stenstrom himself said that he'd mistaken the Oldsmobile 85 for one of his own cars and I suspect that further investigation will uncover other likenesses to the Olds besides body design.

The engine weighs only 318 pounds—an all aluminum V-8. The entire car is some 1,600 pounds lighter than conventional Buicks, has a pleasing trimness which characterizes the 1961 new look in cars generally. There is very little chrome and even the bumper is a narrow strip compared to the usual Buick fore and aft plating.

As one looker remarked — with so many new models out how are you going to make up your mind?

ON WEDNESDAY, Oct. 12, Rossi Garage, San Rafael will feature the first showings of the Studebaker Larks and Chrysler Motor's De Soto for 1961.

PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE CO. has announced that real estate loans totaling in excess of $900,000 have been invested in San Rafael during the first eight months of 1960.

A total of more than two million dollars was disbursed for loans in Marin County during the same period. The entire amount was for residential projects.

MARINITES ON TOUR. David Shisler of San Anselmo who is manager of application engineering for Lynch Communication Systems Inc. was a featured speaker at the annual sales meeting of the Graybar Electric Co. in Chicago last week. He is also taking in the United States Independent Telephone Association convention now in progress in the same city. . . . C. J. (Cye) Whipple of Mill Valley, general manager of Earl Jensen, Vallejo Dodge and Plymouth dealer, won two expense-paid trips to the Bahamas in an Aluminum Company of America contest. Wife Ruth is accompanying him. . . . James V. Clarke, former manager of F. W. Woolworth Co. in San Rafael and now a sales representative for Investors Diversified Services, Inc., has just returned from a sales training conference in Minneapolis. He is a San Rafael resident.

Tidelands Discussion Tomorrow

Decision may be made by the Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow on the long-discussed question of whether to proceed with condemnation of Richardson Bay tidelands for development of a seaplane base or abandon the matter as expensive and with uncertain future.

Things almost came to a head last Tuesday but postponement was finally ordered in hope that a week might bring better information as to whether Richardson Bay operatitons deserve a share of the aviation gas tax money.

Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato insists that funds are all too scanty at best for development of the new county airport near his home town.

But on a basis of a report by County Counsel Leland H. Jordan that current seaplane operations are flourishing; despite bankruptcy of the landlord firm Commodore Aviation Corp., Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley is fightitng for "fair division" of the gas tax money.

A report on the seaplane prospects is expected, with attention to what county income may be expected from tax money.

You need a system to save, Harry!

"Years ago I found out that worry didn't help me save a penny. My good intentions were just not enough. Finally, my bank manager at Wells Fargo American Trust asked me why I didn't pay myself regularly just like I pay everyone else.

"The idea made sense to me. So he set up an Automatic Savings Account and now the bank just moves money from my checking to my savings account every month. The money adds up and we don't really miss it.

"System is the solution to savings. My bank was a step ahead when they introduced the first systematic savings plan in the West — and I think they're a step ahead today. That's why we do all our banking there. My wife has a checking account and a Christmas Club plan, the kids' savings are there — it's really our family bank. I'll bet they can help you, too."

New Buicks Attract Much Interest; The Special Has Pleasing Trimness

Buick's new line of Electras, Invictas, Le Sabres — and the baby of the series, the Special, went on display at Stenstrom's Buick agency in San Rafael last Wednesday. It was too early for a comparative appraisal of their reception by the public; all we could do was look, listen and make a few notes.

Stenstrom's showroom was playing to a fair-sized audience —more, I think, than I'd seen at auto sales openings the week before. It was, as might be expected, clustered around the new Special, Buick's entry in the economy field.

When I remarked on this to Sam Stenstrom he said that the interest was primarily curiosity —he's sold none up to that point but had already made several sales of the other models, mostly to confirmed Buick buyers. The Le Sabre is the best seller in the line.

Actually, Stenstrom had not even had time to prepare a Special demonstrator, had not ridden in one himself and could say little about its performance first hand.

The Special looks exactly like what it is — a small Buick, though I heard some comment from observers on the similarity of front fenders to those of the new Ford. Stenstrom himself said that he'd mistaken the Oldsmobile 85 for one of his own cars and I suspect that further investigation will uncover other likenesses to the Olds besides body design.

The engine weighs only 318 pounds—an all aluminum V-8. The entire car is some 1,600 pounds lighter than conventional Buicks, has a pleasing trimness which characterizes the 1961 new look in cars generally. There is very little chrome and even the bumper is a narrow strip compared to the usual Buick fore and aft plating.

As one looker remarked — with so many new models out how are you going to make up your mind?

ON WEDNESDAY, Oct. 12, Rossi Garage, San Rafael will feature the first showings of the Studebaker Larks and Chrysler Motor's De Soto for 1961.

PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE CO. has announced that real estate loans totaling in excess of $900,000 have been invested in San Rafael during the first eight months of 1960.

A total of more than two million dollars was disbursed for loans in Marin County during the same period. The entire amount was for residential projects.

MARINITES ON TOUR. David Shisler of San Anselmo who is manager of application engineering for Lynch Communication Systems Inc. was a featured speaker at the annual sales meeting of the Graybar Electric Co. in Chicago last week. He is also taking in the United States Independent Telephone Association convention now in progress in the same city. . . . C. J. (Cye) Whipple of Mill Valley, general manager of Earl Jensen, Vallejo Dodge and Plymouth dealer, won two expense-paid trips to the Bahamas in an Aluminum Company of America contest. Wife Ruth is accompanying him. . . . James V. Clarke, former manager of F. W. Woolworth Co. in San Rafael and now a sales representative for Investors Diversified Services, Inc., has just returned from a sales training conference in Minneapolis. He is a San Rafael resident.

Tidelands Discussion Tomorrow

Decision may be made by the Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow on the long-discussed question of whether to proceed with condemnation of Richardson Bay tidelands for development of a seaplane base or abandon the matter as expensive and with uncertain future.

Things almost came to a head last Tuesday but postponement was finally ordered in hope that a week might bring better information as to whether Richardson Bay operatitons deserve a share of the aviation gas tax money.

Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato insists that funds are all too scanty at best for development of the new county airport near his home town.

But on a basis of a report by County Counsel Leland H. Jordan that current seaplane operations are flourishing, despite bankruptcy of the landlord firm Commodore Aviation Corp., Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley is fightitng for "fair division" of the gas tax money.

A report on the seaplane prospects is expected, with attention to what county income may be expected from tax money.
